THE VALUE OF

Fred Kergin Gives Address To Rotary Club at Luncheon Yesterday

"What the University Offers to a Young Man" was the subject of ticularly the broadening effect upon the character of a lad brought up in a small town.

In the first place, Mr. Kergin said, the young man gets in touch with people from all over the country and instead of thinking terms of the home town he thinks in terms of the whole country. which is an excellent thing. He meets men whose interests are in a variety of different kinds of work and give him an opportunity would like best.

SPECTACULAR FILM IS GRAPHIC DESCRIPTION OF NAVY AIR LIFE

"The Flying Fleet," Ramon Novarra's spectacular romance of naval aviation, is the current attraction at the Capitol Theatre. Filmed with the co-operation of the United States naval air force, the picture is a vivid drama of life with the f'yers at sea. It also shows life in a student aviation training base and life at Annapolis. Sensational aerial thrills and acrobatic flying, a rescue at sea, a brief but very interesting ad-thrilling parachute leaps from a blazing plane, and other dress by Fred Kergin to the Ro- vivid details mark the new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer spectary Club at the luncheon yester-day afternoon in the Commodore tac'e, which George Hill directed.
