BIGGEST AND BEST FAIR YET

That is Conclusion From Meeting of Directors Held on Last Tuesday Evening.

Everything looks bright for the biggest and best fair the city has yet had. That was the general conclusion from the meeting of directors held in their rooms on Tuesday evening. The mineral exhibits are showing up well for success.
Ben Self has arranged to have some amusement features that will be different from anything seen here hitherto. The children will be especially pleased at the prospect of a merry-go-round which is promised.
The aerial feature has not been arranged for, but it is possible that the member for the district may be able to have a flying machine brought here for the occasion. The directors are taking the matter up.

Judges have been appointed for the agricultural and horticultural departments, and also for the poultry. These are experts sent by the Government and are bound to give satisfaction.
Great satisfaction was expressed at the efforts of Ben Self in securing two ball games for the occasion. Anyox and Telkwa nines are expected.
A pierrot show and the Prince Rupert Symphony Orchestra, it is thought, will be arranged as special features.

Booth Concessions.
The matter of booth concessions is well in hand. The tea booth in the balcony is to be given to the ladies of the Great War Veterans' Association free of charge. The refreshment booth on the ball grounds is also given free of rent to the Ladies Auxiliary of the Prince Rupert General Hospital.

Owing to some delay in the plans for the new roadway and turn-table at the building being built by the city, the matter of outside booths for selling purposes has been held up. At the last meeting it was decided by the directors to put up a number of uniform booths at the rear of the building around the new roadway and turning point. As there is quite a demand for these booths and the number will be limited the directorate has decided to ask for bids for the rental of same—the booths to go to those bidders selected for the duration of the fair.

The matter of industrial booths inside the building which are being given free of charge this year is well in hand and will be finally arranged at a meeting to be held in the fair building next Tuesday evening.
