Man in the Moon

Before I married Annabelle
I was her pumpkin pie,
Her precious peach, her honey lamb,
The apple of her eye.

But after years of married life
This thought I pause to utter
"I find that I am none of these
But simply bread and butter."

Jake says he feels like a genius because his knees are baggy.

You can always tell a genius;
He seldom tries to please.
But also you can know him by
The bagging of his knees.

A recent arrival in the city asked to be shown some of the sights. We took him around to Third Avenue and pointed out the post office site and asked him what he thought of it.

Because father strikes oil is no reason why the daughter should gush.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

April 15, 1919

After hearing an address by C. F. Caldwell, a mining man of thirty years' experience who has bonded the Forty-Nine and Yellowstone mineral groups in the Salmon River Valley, the Prince Rupert Board of Trade yesterday afternoon passed a resolution asking the Dominion government to cooperate with the United States in building a railway up the Salmon River at Stewart.

The city council decided last night, after hearing representations of a delegation consisting of R. Arthur, F. W. Henning, S. D. Macdonald, W. D. Vance, J. C. McLennan, S. E. Parker and S. J. Winsby, to have the Board of Works proceed at once with the making of necessary improvements at the Acropolis Hill grounds so they may be in good shape for the starting of the baseball and football season.

Prices for red spring salmon dropped to 12c a pound at the local Fish Exchange this morning. Up to 13.6c and 7c was paid for halibut.
