GYRO CLUB AND BASEBALL TEAM

Will Support Nine in City League Providing There Are Three Teams

PLAYGROUND CONDITIONS

The Prince Rupert Gyro Club, at its regular monthly business luncheon today, decided to enter a team in the city baseball league this season provided there are no more than three teams in the competition. The club did not look favorably on a two team league.

There was a discussion as to the condition of the various Gyro playgrounds in the city and it was decided to make periodical inspection with a view to pointing out to the city where repairs may be necessary.

Ralph LePine, chairman of the committee on the hoedown dance which will be held on Friday night of next week, reported arrangements for that affair well under way. A number of novelties were promised.

George C. Arseneau was elected to membership in the club. A guest at the luncheon was Thomas Brown of Vancouver who has arrived here to take up the practice of law. The luncheon raffle was won by G. A. Hunter.

JUVENILES ARE USING LIBRARY

More Books Than Ever Taken Out By Them During Month of March

The month of March saw the largest circulation of books from the juvenile section of the public library since the opening of the institution, reported Miss Cruickshank at the meeting of the board last night. The number taken out was 1045 in addition to a number taken from the adult section by the more advanced children. In commenting on this Miss Cruickshank said the growth of the juvenile section had been most encouraging. Also she was glad to note that children were taking better care of the books loaned. She hoped that they would continue to improve.

Chairman Dibb expressed the appreciation of the board at the condition. He was glad to know this department was doing so well. He also reported in regard to the estimates for the year which had now passed.

Mr. Black mentioned some of the means that had been taken to try to train the children in taking care of their books, speaking of the co-operation of the school teachers as a great help.

The total circulation of the library for the month, Miss Cruickshank said, had been 4,678 volumes of which 3,057 were fiction, 196 duplicate pay, 467 non-fiction and 1048 juvenile. There were now 2,757 registered as borrowers. New books had been received during the month, 11 by gift and 38 by purchase. The present number of volumes on the shelves or in circulation was 6,450.

An invitation was received from the Pacific Northwest Library Association to attend their convention and the letter was read.

A general discussion in regard to library affairs followed. Those present and taking part being: Ed. Dibb, chairman; P. Linzey, James Black, H. F. Pullen and the librarian.

ATTEMPT MUCH AND DO LITTLE IN THE SCHOOLS

That Is the Criticism of Educationist From Wisconsin University in Address

EDMONTON, April 9.—"Education is continuous," declared Dr. Joseph K. Hart, of the School of Education, University of Wisconsin, in his address to the delegates at the Alberta Educational Association convention now in session at the McDougall church, "starts directly the person is born, and continues until either senility or death. Schools are not necessary for education, and it is not so long ago in America, and in fact in some parts of the Dominion today," continued the speaker, "there are places where no schools exist and yet the children are getting an education which is possibly better than that which the city and town children obtain in the schools of the present day."

Schools are attempting to do everything today, and it would appear that they are not doing it well. It is necessary that teachers get rid of the fallacy that education is identified with the world schooling. The schools were established to supplement the education of contact with nature and the individuals of the community, but it would appear that the schools have now adopted the policy of trying to impart knowledge through the medium of text books to children, which previously was imparted through actual experience," Dr. Hart stated.

"All children come to the schools with a store of knowledge, some of it excellent, and some of it the reverse, and it is the duty of the teacher to fit himself to bring out and foster all the good, and to correct the defects the child has acquired, prior to arriving at school age."

CANADIAN NOTE CONCILIATORY

WASHINGTON, April 10.—Secretary of State Stimson said today that the United States reply to the Canadian government's memorandum on the sinking of the schooner I'm Alone was being prepared.

Mr. Stimson said that the tone of the Canadian note was most temperate and conciliatory. Newspaper accounts giving the impression that the note was truculent, he said, were in error and that the reverse was the truth.
