TINY TIMS' DANCE OUTSTANDING EVENT

Augmented Orchestra during Part of Evening—Supper Arrangements Unusually Good.

The Tiny Tims' dance was an unusual event. The champion junior ball team felt that they should celebrate in some outstanding manner so entertained their friends and patrons to jolly affair at St. Andrew's Hall where from about ten o'clock until three in the morning dancing was kept up to the strains of Gray's orchestra, augmented part of the time by Will Edmunds of the Westholme orchestra, H. A. Harvey and others.

It was indeed a memorable sight to see the people dancing the Topsywopsy to the tune of "Marching Through Georgia," the orchestra led by Will Edmunds' cornet.

The supper arrangements were unusually good. The tables were nicely decorated with flowers, and the viands were first rate. The table service, however, was the great thing. The Tims had got their young girl friends to help wait on table and there was a youthful waitress at each table or section of a table and every need was anticipated. Many encomiums were passed on the excellent arrangements.

The Tims themselves did not dance to any extent. They were all present in their natty uniforms and were part of the life of the party. Their young girl friends took part in the dancing.

W. J. Cash was door keeper and a substantial amount was taken which will be used for the benefit of the club.

Sport

There will be a baseball match this evening on the Market Place grounds between two of the Junior League teams. It is rumored that after all the baseball games of late the boys have got a few more pointers and are going to show the older folks just how the game can be played.

Sid Hardy who is playing second base for the Prince Rupert ball team is making a very good showing on the new position. He gets the catcher's throws very well and fields a good game. Sid is a very conscientious player, but it is in batting that he stands in line for praise. He does not always make a hit but generally makes first. If he is not walked by the pitcher he gets hit and can take his own time in getting there.

The Canadian National Exhibition Tournament will be held on August 26, 27, 28, and 29, on the Toronto exhibition grounds which rank among the best in Canada. This tournament always meets with wonderful success and according to the shooters who have signified their intention of attending this year, the shoot should be more popular than ever.

The Scottish football season opens tomorrow on the former pre-war basis. During war time the game was not pushed to its utmost on account of the great number of players who were absent while serving in France. The progress of the various clubs will be marked with great interest. The English association season opens on September 1 and the same conditions prevail there as in Scotland, so that both countries will be watched as to successful results.

Ocean Falls baseball team was highly pleased with Prince Rupert and all the kindness they had received at the hands of the baseball fans. They had just one kick to make before the boat pulled away from the dock and this was made in confidence to Manager Ben Self. Cameron said that he never expected to have to play a team with eight pitchers when he came up for a match. This was the natural outburst after the game of last evening when Prince Rupert had a regular squad of pitchers in the box.

On Monday evening the Trail Club plays the first match with the Sons of England. The new eleven are confident that victory will be theirs. If the Trail Club wins Monday's match this will even up honors with the descendants of the Rose and then the Callies can come back in full force on Thursday night. The latter team received a big shot when their crack team went to defeat the other evening. However, they are confident with a little reorganizing that they will be easily able to hold their own with the best.

All the other baseball teams are feeling a little jealous of the Tiny Tims after the successful dance given by them in St. Andrew's Hall. Even the "big" ball team never did anything like the youngsters last evening. The boys were wearing their regular playing suits during the evening.

BIG POLICE DRAMA, "FROM HEADQUARTERS"

Anita Stewart in Story of Elemental Passion and Human Interest, at Empress.

Big scenes and swift action abound in "From Headquarters," the Vitaphone picture which gives Anita Stewart the strongest emotional role in her brilliant career. Not for an instant does the suspense lag, or the interest slacken from the opening scene to the tremendously dramatic close. It has been called the greatest police story in which love, elemental passion, a girl's blow for vengeance and her final forgiveness all pictured with gripping realism.

"From Headquarters" points out with deadly directness the perils which attend a young girl for the first time seeking employment outside her own home, and in this case it is a girl who has the advice and warning of her father, a noted and relentless police sergeant, who knows whereof he warns. And yet this girl falls a victim of misplaced trust and fate decrees that he in following a trail of vengeance finds that it leads to his own door.

What a role for Anita Stewart, with her wonderful beauty and dramatic ability, where she confronts the man who said he loved, then spurned her; where her father confronts her, reads her story in her eyes and weighs his duty against his love for her—and duty wins.

The picture is at the Empress tonight.
