TERRACE GOLF CLUB INTERRED

The Terrace Golf Club which was born last year has passed out of existence and was decently interred this week. This was done at a meeting of the council of the Terrace Board of Trade Tuesday with E. T. Keney presiding. At that meeting the golf committee of the board was deleted from the list of standing committees, as the Golf Club had notified the owner of the course that they had terminated the lease and closed the books of the club.

A Friend in Need

"I saw a man in a smoker unfold his paper-put his feet up on the opposite seat, take out his glasses, clean them, dive into his pocket and bring out a broken cigar. He tore a piece off his news. paper and tried to wrap it around the cigar -but I could see that his soul was troubled. I took out my pocket pack of 'protected cigars' and gave him a foil-wrapped Marguerite as fresh, firm and fragrant as when it left the factory. Naturally we got to be good friends. I'm going fishing with him in the Spring."
