Conference of Canadian Boys' Parliament at Mountain Point

JASPER, Alta., Sept. 9:-The youth's place in the national life of Canada and its relation leadership of the future will be one of the main subjects of discussion during the forthcoming week, when representatives of the six boys' parliaments of Canada, will meet in conference at the Edmonton Y.M.C.A. summer camp, on the shores of Lake Edith, about two miles from Jasper Park Lodge, in the heart of the Canadian Rockies.

The boys' parliament of Canada conference can be said to be truly national in its representation of the youth of Canada, as its representatives gathered today from the Atlantic to the Pacific seaboards. From the provinces by the sea, came Joseph Berridge, Premier of the Maritime boys' parliament. Jim Gibson, Caledonia, Ont., is present as premier of that province and is accompanied by Karl I.
