"Before My Baby Was Born"

"I was in very poor health before my baby was born and had to lie down two hours every day. The doctor said I would never carry my baby as I was too weak. My mother persuaded me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It has helped me wonderfully. My baby is not very big but he is strong and healthy. I recommend the Compound to every woman I hear complaining and when I feel weak I take it again myself. Everybody says they never saw me looking better. I will be glad to answer letters if I can help other women to be strong and healthy again." —Mrs. William Hardy, 70 Queen Street, Lindsay, Ontario.

LOGGING ACTIVITY ON Q. C. ISLANDS

Revival of Industry on South End; Curtailment of Cannery Operations Expected

James Gillett of Massett, Indian agent for the Queen Charlotte Islands, is a visitor in the city for a couple of days on business. He arrived last night on the Prince Charles and will return to the islands on the same vessel Saturday evening.

There has been quite a resumption of logging activity around the south end of the islands, Mr. Gillett reports, although on the north end it is rather quiet. This is an off year for the salmon run on the islands and it is likely that some of the canneries will not operate.

PLANS TO BUY HALIBUT HERE

Acording to present plans the United Pacific Fisheries will be buying halibut at Prince Rupert this summer. Ross S. Wilson, who was in the city this week looking over the situation, is making arrangements for handling halibut here for the new company, which is cooperative in its nature. He is planning to return here in sixty days after which he expects to take an active part in the halibut business of the coast.

The head office of the new concern is in Seattle, and there will be a buying branch in Ketchikan as well as in Prince Rupert.

A charge against Oscar Hanson of keeping liquor for sale was dismissed by Magistrate McClymont in city police court this morning. E. F. Jones, city solicitor, prosecuted and L. W. Patmore acted for the defence.
