

Man in the Moon

What did they mean when they called a legislative mill a wind-mill?

In the prairie towns no sooner have you done shovelling snow from the walks than you have to start digging dandelions from the lawn. Life is just one unpleasant thing after another.

Jack says some of the Prince Rupert shiks were once street arabs. What could be more likely?

A Cincinnati newspaper carried the following want ad: "Man Wanted—Experienced in handling girls—must do heavy lifting." There was almost a riot when the applicants stormed the newspaper office five minutes after the paper was on the street.

The tender spot on which to strike a man is the pocketbook.

Alibis here, ay and alibis there; Alibis, alibis—filling the air! Excuses for failure; for making a "flop."

Clear from the office boy up to the top!

"Didn't have time," or "it couldn't be done."

Sidestepping jobs that were never begun!

Duties neglected, with sorrowful sigh—

Putting them off with the old alibi!

Canned whale is being offered on the local retail market at 50c per tin. It resembles beef.

The school board is taking up the question of the erection of a new school in the city. There are three possible sites—Acropolis Hill, Hays Cove Circle and Eighth Avenue West.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Duby gave a dance in their honor last night in St. Andrew's Hall. Music was by the Westholme Orchestra.

CURIOUS QUESTION

Sydney surprised his teacher as he was about to go home.

"What have I learned today, teacher?" he asked.

"What a curious question!" the teacher replied. "Why do you ask?"

"Well," said Sydney, "they'll want to know at home."—The Teacher.
