

Man in the Moon

When his hair looks so nice, why conceal it beneath a hat?

It's wrong to go to war but quite right to "kill the ump's" at a baseball match.

Blessed are the poor. If they go to jail they do not have their family records raked up and their photos published.

A great man is one who has never done anything worth while to offend the powers that be.

There are people who don't have to act hateful in order to seem important.

Some of us cannot go away for the holidays because the people in other towns won't charge our groceries and drygoods and shoe shines.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

June 4, 1919

Clerks, checkers, machinists and other employees of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway who went out on strike in sympathy with Winnipeg machinists were given until 10 o'clock this morning to return to work or else be dismissed from the service.

An earthquake shock is reported from Massett. In Portland Canal, the water became muddy and discolored and large numbers of dead fish are reported to be floating about.

After serving both in the Air Force and the Navy, overseas, Lieut. Alex Young, son of Judge and Mrs. F. McB. Young, returned home this morning.
