Man in the Moon

In the old days when a man was wrong he used a brick to enforce his argument. And today many look back with regret to the good old days.

Somehow or other darned socks and smoking cigarettes do not seem to fit in together.

There's one advantage in being a family man. You don't have to slam the doors. When you feel that way you can lick the kids.

There's one pleasant thing about living in Prince Rupert, anybody can feel superior.

It's easy for a boarder to reduce. All he has to do is refrain from reaching.

Even the most objectionable old crab likes to be asked for advice. Try it.

The most futile action in the world is trying to comb your hair so as to cover the bald spot.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

May 15, 1919 President T. C. Duncan of the Prince Rupert Swimming Club has wired Hon. T. D. Pattullo asking the provincial government to make a grant of $500 for improvement at the Salt Lake.

The Belmont Surf Inlet Gold Mining Co. had net earnings of $323,242.06 from its mine on Princess Royal Island last year.

A Section Seven man, charged with operating an illicit still, had his case adjourned until the end of the week.

An Interesting Announcement

Of particular interest to all British Columbians is the announcement of a series of short talks about B. C. and B. C. products that is to run in this paper every week. These talks throw an interesting light on the development and progress that has been going on in recent years. Read them carefully—there is a worthwhile message in each article.
