MACKENZIE KING'S SPEECH

Right Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King is much improved in his speaking. He is dropping a good deal of his oratory and taking up in its place the analytic method of speaking, PATTULLO crowding in his facts and letting them flow in an orderly, systematic manner. In other words, he is dropping the role of politician and taking upon himself the mantle of statesmanship.

It is a happy change in the Prime Minister. In the Question From Audience Sets Him past there has been much discussion as to the ability of Mr. King to lead the party successfully. After hearing the speech the other night no such question arises. People seem to be unanimous that the first minister has arrived. He has developed under the responsibilities of office and is now to be ranked among the big leaders such as Mac- chief speaker. When a voice in her berth alongside the steamer donald and Laurier.

THE UNVEILING CEREMONY

It was a wonderful spontaneous movement that took of his clothes on. Even the prime place Monday morning when something like fifteen hun- minister was seen to grin broadly Home Oil Distributors, Ltd., and V. dred people gathered around the newly-erected cenotaph to witness the unveiling and pay their homage to the men who gave their lives for the Empire. It was a cold damp tration in office very long you will today. Business at the luncheon morning and many yeople shivered, but they remembered never get the road. It had been was of a routine nature. Arrangethe tales of mud and filth and the suffering of the boys ernment but had been discontinued night in aid of the playground fund who went overseas, so wrapped in their warm overcoats, all remained until the end.

Possibly Prince Rupert was laggard in the erection of the monument to the men, but, after all, Prince Rupert does remember. Monday's event proves it.

MANY TURNED AWAY

At the big theatre meeting Saturday night many were the Liberal Opposition had a duty turned away. They came late to the meeting. Mr. Pattullo hoped that the visit of Premier King to Prince Rupert would be pleasant and profitable and that, as a result of his stay in British Columbia, he would find renewed inspiration and pride in the future destines of Canada.

Mr. Pattullo was given a rousing reception by the audience.

Terrace Holds Thanksgiving

TERRACE, Nov. 13.—Armistice and Thanksgiving were celebrated with becoming interest at Terrace. Special services were held in the Anglican and United Churches on Sunday and the customary service of commemmoration was held in the hall of the Canadian Legion on Monday morning. The Rev. A. W. Robinson conducted the service which consisted of patriotic hymns, choral contributions by the Anglican choir, a recitation by A. Attree and a stirring address by the Rev. H. T. Allen. The two-minute silence was duly observed at the conclusion of which Scoutmaster Kirkaldy sounded "The Last Post." Miss E. Reid presided at the piano.

In the evening a chicken supper was put on by the United Church and the peace dance was held in the vets' hall, both being well patronized.
