PREPARING PLANS FOR HIGHWAY TO ALASKA VIA CANADA

United, 78, 79.

WASHINGTON, D.C., Nov. 13:- Memorial For announces that it is collaborating with Alaska and Canada and preparing plans for the extension of the Pacific Highway from the border to Fairbanks, Alaska, a distance of 2.000 miles.

This will connect with a road followed to the coast at Wrangell, Juneau, Cordova or Seward, with Yukon transportation which leads to Bering Sea.

The officials of the department by the pastor, Dr. W. G. Wilson. are very much interested in the proposed highway, to link Alaska and Canada with the States and eventually for a highway through Mexico to Panama and the South American state.

Detail With Committee

The committee representing the derman Theo. Collart and H. F. SINGAPORE Pullen found a very sympathetic listener in Premier Mackenzie King when they interviewed him King when they interviewed him on the train in regard to the Peace River outlet, the aids to navigation in Hecate Strait and the appointment of the director to the Canadian National in place of the late F. . Dawson.

The Promier expressed much appreciation of the brief and lucid manner in which the case was set out in the memorial and of the artistic get-up of the document which had been written and decorated by Morte Craig. He also stated that while he could not, owing to the situation in which he was placed, make any statement, he was keenly interested and would have the whole matter up for consideration on return to Ottawa. He said he realized that this was C. N. territory and should receive consideration. He took great interest in being shown the various proposed routes on the map and in the arguments set forth in favor of a direct westerly route instead of a southern outlet.
