Visit of British Premier Will Be Welcome Event for U. S. Government

WASHINGTON, June 12.— The American Government was declared in high official circles to be greatly gratified and ready to welcome the plan of Premier Ramsay Macdonald of Great Britain to visit the United States to confer with President Hoover on Anglo-American relations.

With his arrival in London Friday, Charles G. Dawes, the new American ambassador to Great Britain, is expected to become acquainted with the proposal and to participate in the discussions of it on behalf of the United States. Meanwhile, it is said, on behalf of the president, that he learned about the proposed visit of Mr. Macdonald only through new paper despatches.

Curious Phenomena Seen at Queen Charlotte Islands Following Big Earthquake

SKIDEGATE, June 12.—The hot springs on Hot Spring Island, on the east coast of Moresby Island, have gone completely dry since the recent earthquake. The springs were considered to be among the best in Canada.

Hand loggers at the head of Peel Harbor, on the west coast of Moresby Island, report that one of the mountains cracked open and smoke was issuing from the crevices.

At Hippo Island there was one of the biggest landslides on June 7 that had been known on Queen Charlotte Islands. The roar of the earth movement, like thunder, was heard by the fishermen in the neighborhood above the noise of their engines. The mountain was completely covered for a long time by fine dust.

Britain's Election Elevates and Crushes Many Notables

The British elections ar over and John Bull has proved that he is not going to be disturbed by results. He has muddled through before and he will get through again. Above are some familiar fac s who will be seen in the House again, and some who have passed out of the picture. Top, left to right, is Rt. Hon. Neville Chamberlain, Minister of Health in the Balawan Government, who doubled his majority in Birmingham; Ben Tillett, famous Laberile, who regained his lost seat in Lancashire from the Conservative Party; Rt. Hon. Sir Austin Chamberlain, Britain's Foreign Secretary in the Baldwin Covernment, who only just scraped through with less than one hundred votes. Bottom, left to right, is Sir Harry Britain, one of Baldwin's old standbys, who faded away before a crushing Laba poll; Lady Astor, who again won her seat for the Conservative Party by a large majority; Sir A. Steel-Maitland, Minister of Labor in the Conservative Government, who suffered defeat.

Thorough Overhaul Planned for Steamer Prince David at the Local Drydock Shipyard

Speaking of reconditioning of the steamer Prince David, which has been acquired by Canadian National Coast Steamships for local service out of this port, Reginald Beaumont, assistant to the Pacific coast manager of the steamship company, stated this morning that final plans for the work had not yet been completed, although the intention was to convert the vessel from coal to fuel burning and also to extend the present limited passengercarrying accomodation. The work, which by the time it is completed, is expected to be quite extensive, will be carried out at the local drydock.
