CHURCH PARADE OF ODDFELLOWS' LODGE

Attended Divine Service Last Evening at First Baptist Church

The local Oddfellows' lodge held its annual church parade last evening. About 40 members of the order, under James Haddon, noble grand, and with W. A. McLean as marshal, participated in the parade from the Metropole Hall to First Baptist Church.

ANTHEM BY CHOIR LAST EVENING AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The anthem, "I Was Glad When They Said Unto Me," was splendidly rendered by the senior choir, under John E. Davey, at evening service yesterday in First Presbyterian Church.

FINE SONG SERVICE AT UNITED CHURCH

Hawthorne Dunn, Recently Arrived from Rosslund, Proves Himself Fine Soloist

A large congregation enjoyed a special song service last night in First United Church. The full senior choir, under J. S. Wilson, gave a splendid rendition of the anthem "Awake, Put On Strength," and Hawthorne Dunn, recently arrived here from Rosslund, proved himself another real acquisition in local vocal talent with the singing of the solo, "One Sweetly Solemn Thought."

NEW CAPITOL CALENDARS OUT

Excellent Pictures Are Booked For Month of May

The Capitol Theatre has booked an exceptionally fine program of pictures for the coming month which the management feels sure will delight its patrons.

Outstanding on the list are the following:

- "Tommy Atkins"—the biggest British production of all time. Romance and drama leap from the screen in a picture of two fighting lads who love the same lassie. "The Great White North"—an educational picture of the first rank. Clear cut and accurate, worth going miles to see, as it might have been worth risking life and limb to chronicle what actually transpires. "Forbidden Hours"—with Ramon Navarro (tsar of "Ben-Hur" fame), the secret tragedies of a monarch's life told in a glorious love story. "The Whip"—starring Dorothy Mackaill. Racing melodrama with the sport of kings at its sportiest. "The Singing Fool"—Al Jolson's greatest screen success. "Trail of '98"—with Dolores del Rio. A stirring drama of the gold rush days in the Yukon.
