framed copies of the pact."

Some of us think that this is probably the most important result of any Armistice Day service anywhere in the Dominion of Can-Church held its regular meeting the same evening and decided to wire the Minister of Education of the Prime Minister's decision. Further.

it was decided to circularize the secretaries of Presbyteries informing them of this event and suggestbouch with their respective Provinmove them take the initiative that the pact in every school in the Doing that they immediately get in cial Departments of Education and will lead to the placing of copies of

The Letter Box

As newly elected secretary of he Northern B.C. Salmon Fisher-nore than passing interest your ditorial in your issue of even

I take pleasure in thanking you or your criticism, realizing that t is at the worst, a cheap method

Knowing that it reaches the

We flatter ourselves that we

Cold Storage were invited to buy

They elected to refuse these

'erms, and appear to have regret-ed it ever since. Naturally, as business is business, we offer no ympathy, and in fairness would

Our members feel that, as the price obtained this season was nigher than ever before, we must have embarked on a successful policy. As to the Cold Storage beng as it were the Paterfamilias of the industry, we as salmon fishrmen, can not accept it in this role. We as an organization, deny our market is an ever increasing

We also are able to know, that en the buyers are somewhere

We fail to see why when the arger interests employ any methd to increase their profits, then he laborer endeavors to get all more adequate return, then his color is considered pink, if not

We seek for pleasant business elations with all interested in the industry, but our period of being led by the nose is past and with the raven we respond "Nev-

I ask you to please print this

Yours sincerely.

C. N. R. steamer Prince John.

Capt. E. Mabbs, is not expected to Goldbloom has just returned from the East and has on display a wonderful selection of furs. Goldbloom is a keen buyer and can offer his cus-

35 Per Cent Less

Than Similar Goods Can

Be Purchased Elsewhere!

Goldbloom, the Old Reliable, after being in business for twenty years, has not yet had

See Goldbloom

First

Third Avenue, Next Bank of

Montreal

a dissatisfied customer.

tomers prices at least

CHARLES LORD.

etter, and thus give the publicity your own editorial received.

is considered diplomacy, and if n the offing.

as long as we have fish to sell.

state that none has been asked.

nen's Association, I read

SALMON FISHERMEN

Editor, Daily News:-

of advertisement.

The official board of the United ada in this year of grace.

Published Every Afternoon, Except Sunday, by Prince Rupert Daily News, Limited, Third Avenue

H. F. PULLEN - - - Managing-Editor

Contract rates on application. Advertising and Circulation Telephone98 Editor and Reporters' Telephone86 Member of Audit Bureau of Circulations

DAILY EDITION

Thursday, Nov. 21, 1929

PEACE PACT

emony at Ocean Falls Which Led To Move

ADDRESS OF PREMIER

Head of Government Tells of Historic Scene at Paris When Pact Was Signed OCEAN FALLS, Nov. 21.—One of those remarkablle series of coincidences which amaze us occurred this week at Ocean Falls, B.C. Armistice Day, Thanksgiving Day and a visit of the Prime Minister of Canada in a small community like Ocean Falls all coinciding in one happen again in a life-time.

On the initiative of the United Church minister a community Armistice and Thanksgiving service Pact was prepared and the Prime It had prepared the way for such Minister asked to unveil it.

arrival of the S.S. Prince George he nounced war. Between fifty and proceeded straight to the church, sixty have since agreed to the pact. A simple service fitting for the occasion was arranged. The service was conducted by the United Church minister, Rev. W. Deans, B.A., B.D.

The Venerable Archdeacon E. Hodson, L.Th., read the prayers for the day. Rev. Captain R. C. Scott, tions B.A., of the Mission ship "Thomas" Crosby", read the scriptures.

assembled congregation stood to attention while the "Last Post" was sounded and during the period of silence which was followed by the "Reveille." The trumpeter was the United Church choir leader, Wm. K. Nevard, who, during three and a half years of the war was with the 29th Canadian battalion.

ly honored in having with us today the Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, the Prime Minister of Canada. We are especially pleased that he is able to take nart in this service. It will stand out as a great historic occaers from many lands. The pathetic sion in the annals of our commun-So far as we know no other church in the Dominion has taken the action we take today.

pregnant in the Peace Pact, the Presbytery of Prince Rupert took action last August which it is hoped Full Description of Impressive Cer- may in due time lead to the placing of copies of the pact in every school in the Dominion. The value of such educational action grew upon us and when the news came of the approaching visit of the Prime Minister it was thought wise to prepare a copy of the pact and have it hung in the church, where it will remain for the renunciation of war lay, witness to the triumph of the Gospel of Peace."

After unveiling the copy of the pact, a beautifully executed piece of work by R. H. Vaughan, the Prime Minister gave a most inspiring address. He first spoke of Thanksgiving and the many readay is a combination not likely to sons why the Canadian people of a new era had come to the world. should take this time to render thanks to the benevolent Creator

Who had so bountifully provided. He then referred to the scripture was arranged to take place on the reading and said: "The time of arrival of the Canadian National which the prophet spoke is at hand steamship on her way south from when the nations shall learn war to solve differences by pacific reply forthwith. Prince Rupert to Vancouver. An no more." He traced the develop- means. To make these real in in- Your statement gives to your invitation was extended to the Rt. ment of peace sentiment since the Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King to ad- close of the war. He paid high dress the meeting on the double compliment to the League of Natheme of Thanksgiving and Armi- tions as having carried on during stice. To commemorate the event the decade of its existence the finan illuminated copy of the Peace est kind of propaganda for peace.

a pact as was signed last August He graciously accepted. On the (1928) when fifteen nations re-

Originated by Briand

He gave credit to Mr. Briand for first suggesting such a treaty to United States, although Mr. Kellogg in accepting the suggestion enlarged its scope to include all na- the people would be saved untold the audience to Paris and portray- tions and other militiary and naval ed the historic scene when the expenditures. Peace Pact was signed. The magnificent building of the French for- | Macdonald was in Ottawa he was | eign office for the first time in his- able to say to him that what he tory was decorated with the flags and Mr. Hoover had been trying to of all the nations of the world. The discover was already to be found crowds eager and expectant watch- in Canada. In 1909 Sir Wilfrid being one of restraint; but hope ed the representatives of the world's Laurier's Government concluded great nations going forward to take treaty with Secretary Root of the In introducing the Prime Mini the momentous step toward world United States Government for the men who had been maimed and commission to deal with waterway fruined by the war, others, mothers, and kindred problems in which both widows and little children who had nations were concerned. been bereaved trying to read the twenty-three issues submitted some > the wistful look "Is it peace? touched the heart of the observer. The arrival of Mr. Stresseman was a dramatic moment. For the that a similar commission might first time in fifty years a French be formed to include all the British foreign minister received a German Dominions or the present commisforeign minister in his office. Im- sion enlarged. It may be that this mediately the party proceeded to experiment of twenty years will pro-When Mr. Briand denspoken question expressed by

NERVES WERE BAD Could Not Sleep Tired All Day Long

Miss Florence Coutier, Bark Lake, Ont., writes:-"I was troubled with my nerves, could not sleep at night, and felt tired all day long.

"A neighbor came in to see me, one morning, and advised me to take "The first box did me good and after the sixth box I was able to go back to my work."

Price, 50c. a box at all druggists and dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Stresseman was the first to rise and slowly make his way to the small table where the general pact as long as the church endures as a awaiting the signatures that were to make it practical, and taking the pen he wrote the signature that pledged his country the first of al the nations of the world to renounce war as an instrument of national

The representatives of the other nations followed, and the promise

Simple Pact Mr. King said: "The pact is very public at large, and feeling that simple and brief. It contains two your remarks may place a wrong articles, the first, agreement to re- construction on the policy of our nounce war; the second, agreement association I feel constrained to ternational affairs two things are readers the impression that we. necessary. First, disarmament; as an association, sold all our fish second, the creation of an instru- to one buyer, and that it was to ment-world court or commission be regretted, that that buyer was -to which problems that arise may not the Cold Storage.

He was glad to say that at the possess enough grey matter, to meeting of the League of Nations know that it would be idiotic, to Council in Geneva he was able to curtail competitive markets, and point out that Canada had already assure you that the benevolent found these things practicable.

The treaty of 1817 with the Uniour fish on equal terms with their ted States had provided for dis-competitors. armament on the lakes and had been extended to include the four thousand-mile boundary line from the Atlantic to the Pacific. If similar treaties were made in Europe millions in taxation which today In most intimate fashion he took are needed for boundary fortifica-

The other day when Ramsay leace. Many of the watchers were appointment of an international thoughts on the faces of these lead- were still pending, but all the mission consisting of three representatives of each nation.

the room where the treaty was to vide the way for all the nations. It may be that once again this Word" is being fulfilled and God is using the weak things to con-

Message of King

found the mighty."

"These are the contributions of arrive in port until Saturday the new world to the age-old prob- from Vancouver via the lems of humanity. To you and the Charlotte Islands. The vessel did whole Canadian people on this not get away from Vancouver unoccasion"I would give this message. til Monday, being two days late While our hearts are filled with in leaving there. She is scheduled thanksgiving to Almighty God for to sail from here southbound His boutiful providence during the over the same route at 10 p.m. year, we link up with this day the Saturday. additional thought of thanksgiving for the restoration of peace among the nations. The message of the trumpeter and the period of silence remind us of the men who paid the supreme sacrifice in the interests of peace and of those who under tremendous handicaps are quietly carrying on with a courage equal to that evinced in the field of

"What more enduring and worthy memorial can we raise to the memory of those men than this pact. The enemies we have to fear today are those who sow seeds of distrust among the nations. Let us sow seeds of friendship and confidence; and help create the atmosphere where the ideals of this pact may flourish and bring healing to the

After the service the copy was taken down and the man who had signed the Peace Pact on behalf of Canada signed this copy and dated it Armistice Day, 1929. To members of the board of the church and many of the friends who waited to see this additional little ceremony which gives to our copy of the pact a very special value the Prime Minister spoke of the educational value of this action of the church. He recalled the letter from the Prince Rupert Presbytery, but as all matters were under the jurisdiction of the Provincial Government he could take no action. Copies of the Pact Mr. Deans informed him that the secretary of the church board had letter from the Minister of education to the effect that if the Dominion Government would undertake the expense the Provincial De-

SUCCESSFUL TEA artment would have the copies the Provincial Department of Edu- was a successful affair. Mrs. S. V. the last two ladies pouring. Mrs. ant, president of the club was cation, the Dominion Government Cox was convener and those as- Frank Clapp was cashier. will be pleased to provide suitable sisting, were Mrs. Bert Morgan, D. B. Finn, director of the Prince placed in the schools.

Mrs. W. S. Hammond, Mrs. J. S.

Mrs. W. S. Hammond, Mrs. J. S.

Station, was the speaker at the the money if he will do that." Later yesterday afternoon by the Retained the money if he will do that." Later yesterday afternoon by the Retained the home of Mrs.

Mrs. W. S. Hammond, Mrs. J. S.

Station, was the speaker at the weekly luncheon of the Prince of Mrs.

G. V. Wilkinson, Mrs. B. Church, Rupert Rotary Club in the Com. he confirmed this statement in conversation by saying: "If we are asked to co-operate in this way by Bert Morgan, Fifth Avenue West, McKinley and Mrs. Alex McNeill, being "Refrigeration." George Bry.

SEVENTH ANNUAL

lemptation

Sale Starts Tomorrow, Friday

ONCE-AGAIN THE ACME IMPORTERS ARE ABLE TO ANNOUNCE THE OPENING OF THEIR GREAT ANNUAL TEMPTATION SALE-BIGGER AND BETTER THAN EVER!

This yearly event is a noted one in Prince Rupert for the customers and friends of The Acme Importers. We have been preparing well beforehand and this Temptation Sale is proof of our efforts. Here are some prices that afford men savings they have never received before on such quality merchandise:

Suits For Men

The Season's Chosen Styles Are Here We're proud of our selection! There's nothing in the way of style we do not have. Fancy weaves, handsome colors, finest wool fabrics. Every garment masterfully tailored. Wonderfully lined and every detail of the very best that can be put into suits for such high quality and attractive styling. Temptation Sale Price

Suits For Men

Here Is One Lot For Rush Sale Only 20 in the lot, though, and all in pure wool tweeds. Sizes 36 and 37 only. Temptation Sale

Sweaters For Men

Men's Sweaters-Jumbo styles with shawl collar and all pure wool. Colors of white, black and fawn. Temptation Sale

Boys' Armour Clad Suits

The Greatest Wearing Suits For Boys Ever Made Double knees, double seat. All pure wool materials. And some with two I In all shades and sizes. pairs of pants. Tempta- $5.95 tion Sale Price

Boys' Underwear

The famous St. Margaret's Brand of Boys' Underwear-Pure wool material, made in England; short sleeve, knee length. All sizes. Temptation Sale Price ...

Boys' Caps

The very latest styles in Boys' Caps in the newest shades and colors. All Temptation Sale Price

Overcoats For Men

Overcoats For Men of Every Description

Overcoats tailored makers, embodying all the new features for winter attire. Wool fabrics in conservative snappy styles. Overcoats with two and three buttons. Notched lapels, graceful fitting models. In fact, the type that men will choose without further hesita-Temptation Sale Price $19.85

Shirts For Men

Tooke's Shirts, Arrow Shirts, Lang's Shirts-Made of imported English broadcloths; in white, mauve, fawn, in stripe patterns and plain colors. Regular values to $3.50. Temptation Sale Price ...

Rubbers For Men

Temptation Sale Price :

The famous St. Margaret's Socks for boys-Pure wool, made in England Temptation Sale Price

Boys' Shirt Waists

Here Is One Real Special in Shirt Waists For Boys

Assorted patterns and in all sizes. Temptation Sale

Boys' Pants

Boys' Pants with governor fasteners Did you ever see a price like this. Temptation Sale

Terms: Cash Only

THIRD AVENUE

Mail Orders Filled At These Prices

