CONTESTS FOR ORATORY HELD

Robert Irvine Declared Champion of Prince Rupert High School Last Evening

Robert Irvine, third year, won the oratorical championship of the Prince Rupert High School in contests which were held last night in the Westholme Theatre and will probably go to Vancouver in the course of the coming spring to represent this district in the provincial finals which will be held under the auspices of the Vancouver Sun. There were five entrants in the contest, which proved interesting to a large audience, including practically all the pupils of the High School. Irvine's subject was "The Spirit of the Pioneers." Each contestant was permitted to speak for 10 minutes and judging was on the low point total by Bishop G. A. Rix, Rev. T. H. McAllister and Principal Thomas Peddie.

Rupert Ross, first year, who was only one point behind Irvine, in second place, made a particularly good showing, his subect being "Canadianism." William Collison, speaking on "Canada, Our Native Land," came third, but one point behind Ross. Miss Helen Stamp-Vincent, whose subject was "The Peoples of Canada," was fourth, and James Winslow, speaking on "The Unification of Canada," came fifth.

CHANEY SUPERB IN BIG FILM

Star Does Great Work in "Laugh, Clown, Laugh" at Capitol Again Tonight

The age-old barrier to love—that of the passing years—is the motivation of the most startling film drama of the years, and Lon Chaney, portrayer of strange characters, has in it a vehicle that reveals more hidden facts in the gem of his artistry than any play in which the famous star has ever appeared.

This play is "Laugh, Clown, Laugh." Herbert Brenon's latest directorial feat, and one of Chaney's greatest triumphs. The new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer spectacle, now playing at the Capitol Theatre, has in it so many remarkable features that ,in describing it, one wonders where to commence.

Ewart Lyne, popular pianist with the Capitolians was given a big reception on his presentation of (a) "A Slavonic Fantasie," his own composition, (b) special arrangement of "It goes like this."

This big show will be repeated tonight with usual prices of 35c and 5c.

Weak and Run Down Didn't Want to Eat Could Not Sleep

Mrs. D. Leone, Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., writes:—"I was weak and run down; did not want to eat, and could not sleep. I felt tired of living and often longed for death to free me from my terrible misery as I felt I would never be strong again. I thought I would try and really I soon felt like eating and living, and new life seemed to come to me."
