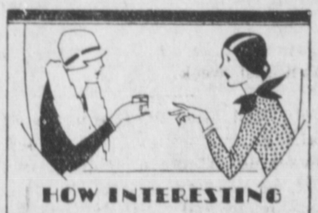
PICNIC IN HALL

Owing to unsettled weather, the annual Sunday School picnic of St. Andrew's Cathedral is being held in the Cathedral Hall this afternoon rather than across the water. Many youngsters are in attendance to enjoy the fun, and Rev. J. B. Gibson and E. W. Tucker, Sunday School superintendent, are in charge of the proceedings.



HOW INTERESTING

"Yes, Bob is back from the East again—and he says he's here to stay. Things are humming now in B. C. and he has a splendid position with one of the flour mills here employing over 200 men! Between them, these two plants make white flour for the whole Pacific coast trade and do a tremendous export business as well. You use the pastry flour, of course."
