Most of the delegates to the Associated Boards of Trade of Central British Columbia convention here this week returned by this morning's train to their homes in the interior.
Last night was the only free evening the delegates had during their stay here and most of them were entertained privately.

With the long summer vacation now commencing the annual migration of teachers from all parts of the north to Vancouver and elsewhere in the south is now on. Several pedagogues arrived in the city from the interior on yesterday afternoon's train while this afternoon many more arrived.
The steamer Prince Rupert, sailing tonight for the south, will have many teachers on board while other southbound vessels are also getting their share.

Choking Sensation

Mrs. H. Day, Dartmouth, N.S., writes:—"For over a year I was troubled with smothering spells and shortness of breath, and it was impossible for me to walk, even a short distance, because of the choking sensation which followed.

After trying many treatments, in vain, I at last decided to try

KEEPING IT QUIET

The hard-up actor was looking for rooms in a small provincial town. He knocked at last on the door of a house where he had seen the notice "Apartments."

"Could you give me the lowest terms for actors?" he asked the landlady.

"I could," was the reply, "but my missus is just behind me, and she does not hold for bad language."—Answers.
