Paul Waner, "Big Poison" of Pittsburgh Nationals, was in uniform for the first time this year last Friday, when the Pirutes met the Detroit Tigers in the second game of a three-game exhibition series. Waner has just signed a contract, after a conference with Barney Dreyfuss, president of the Pittsburgh club. He had been holding out for a bigger salary.

Grover Cleveland Alexander, n each of his 20 years in baseball, has won more games than he has lost and always had a better percentage at the end of the year than his club. His first engagement landed him with a tail-ender-Galesburg of the Illinois-Missouri league in 1909—yet he pitched .552 for that club. In two successive games that year-July 22 and 25 -he did not allow a run, pitching a 2-0 no-hit game in the first and a 1-0 18-inning game in the second with 19 strikeouts. Alexander, at Syracuse in 1910, pitched 54 successive scoreless innings, his salary at that time
