Purpose of Legation to Japan is Outlined by Minister at Luncheon

The twofold aspect of the duties of the minister to Japan were emphasized by Hon. Herbert Marler, envoy plenipotentiary to Tokio, in an address to the Board of Trade and Women's Canadian Club at their luncheon Saturday afternoon in the Commodore Cafe, President Gonzales of the Board of Trade presiding, supported by Mrs. McNaughton, president of the Women's Canadian Club, and by Col. S. P. McMordie, D.S.O., of the city, and T. H. Johnson, president of the Canadian Fisheries Association.

PRAYINGFOR SETTLEMENT WAGEDISPUTE

MANCHESTER, Aug. 5 .- The Lancashire textile stoppage entered its second week today, no nearer a solution than it was last Monday, when 500,000 workers first walked out in protest at the enforced reduction of 12 1-2 per cent in wages. The strikers have lost during this week of idleness $5,000,000 in wages, but apparently they are not worrying. The Manchester restaurants, movies and amusement places yesterday were filled with crowds of strikers, seemingly settlement of the dispute.
