NEW YORK, Nov. 19 .--- The death occurred here yesterday of John Court, the well known theatrical man, who a number of years ago built a number of theatres and organized one of the largest theatrical circuits on the continent.

SEATTLE, Nov. 19 .- This city is to be made so hot for holdup men and their ilk that they will not care to operate here, if the civic authorities have their way. Stern measures are to be taken to cope with the growing lawlessness.

requests that have been made of him, Ald. Cyril H. Orme finally consented last night to be a candidate for the mayoralty at the civic election next January. In order to run, it will be necessary for him to resign as an alderman. This will make the sixth vacancy on the city council to be filled at the election.

A pioneer business man of more than twenty years' standing, Mr. Orme is very well known and highly popular and his supporters are confident that he will make a very strong run for the chief magistracy. He has long been prominent in public affairs here and has been, among other things, chairman of the board of school trustees for many years, president of the Board of Trade and the Northern B. C. Agricultural Association.

At the municipal election last January, he headed the aldermanic poll with a lead of more than two hundred votes over his nearest rival.
