dency to fill positions vacated by veterans with those who have not seen service, and, while veterans wish to be fair and cannot claim all positions in the government service, we should insist that vacancies of this kind be again filled by veterans. I regret to note that the position vacated by the assistant to the government agent here has been filled by a person who is not a veteran, although it was formerly held by one who saw service in the late war.

Carrying On Program

"In visiting our northern British Columbia branches I am carrying out part of the organization program arranged by your executive our branches in this province.

"Everywhere I go I find the utmost enthusiasm for the work of the Legion, which is now recognized by governing bodies as the mouthpiece of the veterans in Canada. As part of the British Empire Service League, which epresents veterans' organizations n eighteen parts of the British Empire, we belong to what might be termed the largest British institution in existence today and we wield a very large influence in the impire, particularly in regards to matters afecting war, etc.

"In Canada we now have no less han 776 active branches with ver sixty thousand members and n British Columbia there are 97 ctive branches with over 8000 ranches composed of Canadian ent. veterans, one branch having been formed in Los Angeles recently.

Adjustment Bureau

"In Ottawa we maintain an adjustment bureau, where pension nims made by veterans and dependents are dealt with. The federal government, on the recommendation of a mixed parliamentary committee, contributes the sum of $10,000 towards the cost of maintaining this bureau, as we provide free service to veterans whether they are members of the Legion or not.

"The Canadian Legion is now endeavoring to have the federal govenment agree to provide free medical treatment for all veterans, irrespective of whether the disability is due to service or not. This procedure has been adopted n the United States.
