

At the same event it is stated in the The following further games were Ketchikan Chronicle, some quick stepplayed last evening in the first round ping lightweights from Prince Rupert of the Canadian National Railways will show their wares for the first Tennis Club's tournament: * time there. Men's Singles

J. H. Horton beat J. E. Davies, 6-2, J. H. Peets beat E. Smith, 6-1, 6-3.

G. Harold heat L. Parkes, 6-2, J. McPherson beat T. Wilding, 6-2, Ladies' Singles weather is suitable. Bay, B.C.

1390

- WALL

300.0

Y Robert

pel

e int

OUTBOARD MOTOR FIEND Enghien. STUCK AT ALERT BAY

Mrs. Rogers beat Mrs. Brass, 6-0, who left Juneau last week in an open spring salmon there and all the More games will be played tonight if attle, today was stormbound at Alert Island except those who have given up trolling

THE ACME IMPORTERS Backward Season

BELGIUM IS FATAL

BRUSSELS, Belgium, June 19 .- Nine persons were killed and many injured when a passenger train from Ghent crashed into a derailed engine near

WEST COAST FISHING

SKIDEGATE, June 19: SEATTLE, June 19 .- Raymond Haines, report from Hippo is that there freezing as the spray hit house or rigging. The clothing of the men on Sport Chat deck was beavy with ice, and the pilot house windows were continually deadened by clinging, heavy snow. No Sign of Land

There was no sign of land, and Cap the day of the seal search The annual city championship ten- tain Brown figured he was still in safe his tournament will start on Sunday waters. A heavier squall, prolonged next, it is announced. Members of all wrapped the boat in its smothering and a great name, and a position which in the cricket work? A fine clubs are being invited to participate blinding silence. There was no sound and, in addition, any players who are but the waves hitting the hull, at not members of the clubs will be wel- the snow-softened chatter of the encome as the competition will be gine.

boat with an outboard motor for Se- men and buyers have left for North strictly open to all. There will be Then-Crash! Hard and fast on events in ladies' and men's singles and reef. Men dashed out. Twe waves ladies,' men's and mixed doubles and poured more violently across the decks all games will be played at the courts and made life in the open a very po of the Prince Rupert Tennis Club. En- risk: They tried to pull off but were tries are being received by Poli Howard unable to move. Great rollers smashed and Carl Brand and will be open until and shook at the hull and the steering Saturday evening. chains broke. Like a ceaseless triphammer the big billows from the Paci-

Baseball at Anyox this season is fic slipped smoothly and softly up in proceeding so far without a hitch. The the smother of snow, broke at the edge teams are providing a good brand of of the reef and smote the stern of the ball and the spectators are turning out lost craft with thunderous smashes. well, three hundred having witnessed The deckhouse was carried away and the last league game which the Mine the timbers of the stout hull began to won 7 to 3 from the Elks. Of the six tear from their fastenings. Between league games so far played, the Mine boat and shore was a wild turmoil of has won three. Concentrator, two, and waters, raging white, gashed here and Elks, one. The Concentrator, with an there by the black teeth of the reefs. average of .243, leads in team batting Swam in Cauldron batter of the league.

while Hardy is the leading individual A volunteer started to swim through this cauldron, taking a light line. He drew a heavier line in after he had negotiated the passage. Then, when Local baseball fans are glad hat the Native Sons of Canada are the tide dropped, the rest of the shipnce again planning to bring Ketchikan wrecked mariners were able to make baseball players here for the July 1 shore in comparatively shallow waters. selebration. No doubt, this interna- They had escaped with nothing but the clothes they wore, and they were tional series, which has always proven so popular in the past, will be just drenched and chilled. Fortunately there as well appreciated again. A series of was a settlement within a few miles, games will be played here in connection and they staggered there for refuge. Captain Brown's log does not tell with Dominion Day celebration these things. It reads: "Ran on reef in arrangements are being made

Famous Cricket and Polo Aminoria

CANADA DAY

The new Lord Rosebery, who as Lord initiation in the Grenadier Guya. At Eton Lord Daimeny captain Dalmeny, recently succeeded his father. the Earl of Rosebery, Liberal statesman and former Prime Minister, "has the task of carrying on a fine tradition, he achieved an putstanding rebulks large in the eyes of his country- sportsman, he fences, shoots, h in antharity on pold, and a month men," says the Daily News and Westminster Gazette. "He followed in his became a Steward of the Jockey C father's footsteps both in politics and The present Lord Rosebery is i in sport, and "sat for Gladstone's old rector of the News and Westman constituency, Midlothian, from 1906 to Limited, publishers of the Daily Weatminster Gazette. 1910, after having first held a com-

