Everybody is Not a Judge of Diamonds

Most people have to take someone's "say so" because most people aren't up on diamond values.

We wish to tell you that every diamond we have in stock has passed a most careful examination at our hands.

Which makes buying here absolutely safe for the person who knows little about diamonds.

We are showing some nice diamond engagement rings at $25.00, $40.00, $75.00 and $150.00.

"BRANDING BROADWAY" BY BIG BILL HART

Curious Admixture of East and West in Play at Westholme Theatre Tonight.

Bob Sands is a puncher from the Southwest. He got into Manhattan a few days ago and was employed by Mr. Harrington, the millionaire railroad man, to undertake to tame young Larry Harrington, his son. The brightly lighted districts of the metropolis have known Larry for some time past as a spender who has no regard for his father's millions, and who can fight like a demon.

But Bob started in by licking his charge and then tried to help him collect some letters foolishly written to a pretty little waitress. But Bob fell for the lady himself and then Harrington, Sr., called in a private detective to get the evidence. The latter got away with the papers, but Bob horrified a mounted policeman's horse and followed the fleeing taxicab.

The part of Bob is taken by Big Bill Hart and the play is on tonight at the Westholme.

NYPH OF FOOTHILLS IS GLADYS LESLIE

One of the gripping scenes in "A Nymph of the Foothills," the Vitagraph Blue Ribbon drama, featuring Gladys Leslie, which will be the attraction at the Empress tonight, is where Ben Kirkland is on trial for his life in a wild mountain hamlet charged with slaying the father of Emmy Chaney, a beautiful but untutored daughter of the mountains, whom he married and carried away to his city home. Emmy had been coldly received by his parents and a former sweetheart of Ben's easily convinced her she was not married because she could show no marriage certificate. So she returned to her mountain home to face another tragedy: the murder of her father, together with the fact that the man she loved but who, she believes, had wronged her, was the murderer.

The Houdini "Master Mystery" is also to be shown tonight. Jas. Smith of the Digby Island Quarantine Hospital who has been critically ill for the past few days, is resting more easily at his home this morning. A trained nurse has been in attendance regularly.

LIEUTENANT TOOK WHEEL WHEN SKIPPER DIED

CAPTAIN J. B. HILL OF THE U.S.S. FINLAND

LIEUT. COMMANDER WILLIAM J. RAGUE OF THE U.S.S. FINLAND

No bands were playing welcome music for the returning troops arriving on-board the transport Finland, which reached Hoboken the other day. The old Red Star steamship carried her ensign at half staff. One day out from Brest the veteran skipper of the Finland, Captain J. B. Hill, of Philadelphia, died at the wheel. Captain Hill had been with the Red Star since 1888 and was one of the best known skippers of the Atlantic. When the government took over the Finland as a transport Captain Hill received the grade of lieutenant commander and later was raised to commander. Upon his death the transport was turned over to the command of Lieut. Commander J. R. Rague, who is only twenty-three years old and the youngest commander to bring a vessel of the Finland's tonnage into the port of New York. He was an officer of the Finland under Captain Hill and had a lieutenant commander's rating in the Naval Reserve.
