Man in the Moon

Jake says if anyone mentions weather to him, his friends had better order a coffin.

If anyone wants our weather
We'd sell it them for a dime,
For such weather as this in August,
It surely is a crime.

I like my grass to be green,
I like most things that come my way,
But I hate a man who is mean.

The party that's going to the convention of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce early next month are said to be deploring the movement to have the wives go along. If they have their way they will be able to sing:

We have no wives with us,
We have no wives with us,
There may be wives
With other guys,
But there's no wives with us.

In these days when all wage workers are being dubbed slaves, it may be noted that proof readers have been galley slaves since time immemorial.
