ST. GEORGE'S DAY BANQUET

Enjoyable Affair Last Night in Commodore Cafe to Observe Anniversary of England's Patron Saint

The Royal Society of St. George celebrated St. George's Day with a banquet last evening in the Commodore Cafe. There was a large attendance of Englishmen with their wives and friends and the function was very enjoyable.

The toast to "The King" was observed in the usual manner and was spoken to by W. Lamb. "Our Empire" was proposed by Ex-Mayor S. M. Newton and "The Royal Society of St. George and Our England" by F. J. Fuller, president of the society. The toast to "Our Visitors" was proposed by Percy Cameron and ably responded to by D. C. Schubert. There were vocal solos by Mrs. J. A. Teng, Mrs. C. E. Cullin, John E. Davey and J. A. Teng, all of which were much appreciated.

World wide greetings were read from various branches of the society.

The evening was brought to a close with the playing of whist. Prize winners were: ladies' first, Mrs. C. J. Norrington; second Mrs. R. Green; third, Mrs. Thomas Silversides men's first, D. C. Schubert; second, S. M. Newton; third, J. M. Walker.

Going Upstairs Had to Sit Down Breath So Short

Mrs. H. Brousseau, Magog, Que., writes:—"For many years I suffered with shortness of breath; then four years ago I had palpitation of the heart, and was so bad I had to sit down two or three times when going upstairs. I read about so I got a box, and in no time I felt better, so I took three boxes more and I have never had shortness of breath since."

Price 50c. a box at all druggists and dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Ltd., Toronto, Ont.

CHARMING STAR PLAYS FIRST ROLE AS A "GOLD DIGGER"

Norma Shearer Shows Sterling Dramatic Ability in "A Lady of Chance"

At least once in the life of every movie star the girl who has been the personification of beauty, charm and innocence must become a crook of one species or another, and tonight at the Capitol Theatre Norma Shearer has her fling as a good-bad girl in "A Lady of Chance," a Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production. LeRoy Scott's clever story would be an absolute failure if the girl who adopts "gold digging" as a profession didn't find that the straight and narrow path leads directly to the heart of the young man she loves and "The Lady of Chance" is a whooping success in this direction.

What happens between the opening sequence and the final fade-out is most entertaining and quite unusual with Miss Shearer adding to her laurels as an actress by assuming the role of a girl who lives by her wits and trickery.

COLD BATH IN HARBOR

Canoe Occupied by Brick Skinner and Tom Zarelli Capsized Yesterday

Brick Skinner and Tom Zarelli, returning yesterday afternoon about 3:30 from a swim at the Salt Lake, had another unsuspected plunge in the middle of the harbor when their canoe upset. They were changing paddles when one dropped in the water and their canoe upset in the mix-up.

The plight of the two men was observed from the floats of the Pacific Salvage Co. whence the harbor boat June, with Capt. Paul Armour in charge, and the cannery tender Claxton H. went to their rescue. After spending a few minutes in the water, they were safely pulled out.

INSTALLATION ELKS' OFFICERS

Enjoyable Open Evening at Which Exalted Ruler Gulick Put in Charge

Success of efforts that have been made during the past few weeks by P. A. Miquelon of Calgary, grand organizer, to put the local Elks' Lodge on its former strong foundation culminated last night with the installation of G. E. Gulick, exalted ruler, and a strong list of officers to head the lodge. There was a large attendance at the installation which was of a public nature and at which great enthusiasm was displayed. Ladies of the Royal Purple and friends were present.

The installation was conducted by Mr. Miquelon who made a suitable address on the aims and objects of the order. The presence of the Elks' patrol made an added feature. There were short addresses by Bert Morgan, retiring exalted ruler, and G. E. Gulick, the new exalted ruler. The program also included vocal solos by Mrs. J. H. McLeod and Alex Clapperton. An orchestra under the leadership of Charles P. Balagno played musical selections. The 11 o'clock toast was spoken by W. E. Williscroft.

After the program, refreshments were served during which Mr. Miquelon told short stories and performed sleight of hand tricks. There were step dances by Joe Downey.

Dancing brought the evening's proceedings to a close at 1:30 a.m.

Mr. Miquelon sails by the Princess Alice this afternoon for Vancouver enroute home to Calgary.

Dr. Joseph Gosse, local dentist, returned to the city on yesterday afternoon's train from a trip to Terrace on professional business.
