Portrait, by Argnani, of Lina Cavalieri, the beautiful opera star, who now conducts a smart beauty shop in Paris. Mme. Cavalieri's own loveliness is proof of the wisdom of her beauty advice.

Unmistakably Parisian, this ontrance to Cavalieri's Salon de Beaute, at 61, Avenue Victor Emmanuel III. Here, on an afternoon, one mingles with an interesting and attractive group of women from Canada and the continent.

"In addition to my own beauty aids, I always recommend the soap blended of palm and olive oils. By cleansing the pores thoroughly it leaves the skin in a smooth, healthy condition."

Ensconced in her sumptuous salon, on the Avenue Victor Emmanuel III., Lina Cavalieri tells her patrons of a simple home beauty treatment with a soap blended of palm and olive oils.

"I am visited by some of the most famous beauties of two continents," she says. "In addition to my own beauty products, I always recommend them to use Palmolive Soap."

Mme. Cavalieri feels that the unique lather of Palmolive frees those hardening masses of

The Salon de Coiffure of the Chateau Frontenac, a corner of which is shown above, is a rendezvous not alone for the smart women of Quebec but for travellers from all parts of Canada, the United States and Europe.

"The smartest women of Quebec and half the continent acknowledge my salon as the city's leading beauty establishment," says Blanche Hutchison. "To me they come for advice on how to protect the skin and restore its youthful appearance."

Polka dots have achieved such popularity that they are now being presented in a variety of color-combinations and designs. Big dots, little dots, and clusters of dots are making their way into the hearts of smart women. The latest idea is to reverse the colors-thus, instead of dark dots on a light background, designers are throwing light dots on dark grounds. This ensemble, of brown crepe with yellow dots, is a case in point. The blouse is dotted brown on yellow.

J. A. Anderson, superintendent of the provincial department of public works, has been a visitor here during the past few days from Anyox.

Extensive improvements are being made to the Government Telegraphs line between here and Anyox, including the putting in of copper wire the whole length. Four miles of new cedar poles are also being put in on the Alice Arm end. Fumes from the Anyox smelter caused deterioration of the old galvanized wire.

The Dolly Varden Railway has been put in a state of repair between the town and Mile 7. Later the capacity of the Smithers kinson, Williams Tompkins, E. C. in the year repairs will be made on the upper end of the line. The public works department is surfacing and repairing the wharf road here.

CEDARVALE LADY IS HOME FROM HOSPITAL

HAZELTON, April 24:---Mrs. J. Paulis, wife of Joe Paulis, section foreman at Cedarvale, who has been in the Hazelton Hospital for the past six weeks, has returned to her home, recovered from a serious illness. She underwent an operation successfully. Mrs. Paulis is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Byman of Perow, and formerly of Prince Rupert. Conservative prints, fashioned
