MARKS CLOSING OF WESTHOLME BY BIG SHOW

Friday and Saturday being the last shows before the closing of the Westholme, a special program has been arranged. The great aeroplane picture "The Legion of the Condemned" is the feature and it is one of the greatest film achievements ever produced. As an aeroplane picture it stands alone and is acclaimed by the producers and conceded by the critics to be a far superior photoplay to "Wings" or any other show of a similar nature. The daring adventures of a number of "black sheep" who become the wildest, maddest, most devil-may-care pilots on the French front, pile thrill upon thrill and all through runs a tender romance. Gary Cooper and Fay Wray sustain the leading parts and are supported by a large and brilliant cast. "The Masked Menace," a "Sportlight" and a Film Fable complete the picture bill.

Between shows on Friday and Saturday nights the Premier Orchestra, the well-known local musical organization, will appear and repeat their former success with specially jazz numbers.

Synchronized music with sound effects will accompany the pictures. A finer bill has yet to be offered.

J. C. Brady M. P. returned to the city on this afternoon's train from Ottawa to spend the Easter recess from the House of Commons at his home here.

"TWO LOVERS" AT THE CAPITOL

Ronald Colman and Vilma Banky Co-starred; Freddy Wells in Fine Performance

Vivid, unforgettable scenes of martial history joined with a love story of poignant tenderness to make "Two Lovers," the film which opened at the Capitol Theatre last night, a really brilliant appearance for the co-starring team of Ronald Colman and Vilma Banky.

"Two Lovers" is an adaptation by Alice D. G. Miller from the famous Baroness Orczy novel, "Leatherface." Though this novel and exciting story has been read by many and holds countless enthusiasts in advance, as many—and more—can now thrill to the visual representation of the mysterious leather-masked man who always turned up suddenly to save his lord liege, the Prince of Orange, from being captured by the enemy and letting Flanders go into the hands of the invading Spaniards. Capitoline Freddy Wells gave a clever and artistic rendering on the xylophone of "When You and I Were Young, Maggie," and "You Tell Me Your Dreams."
