With the Elks' team back today from its trip to Ansox, league baseball should get down to business again and a lively encounter is anticipated tonight in the scheduled meeting of the Native Sons of Canada and Elks. Whichever team wins will be at the top of the heap for only half a game separates the leading Canucks from the Antlered Herd on the standing sheet. The baseball boys may be expected to put all they have got into the league fixtures intervening between now and Fair Week when select players are to meet an aggregation from Ocean Falls in the first inter-town games that will have been played here this season.

Four new yachts, three of them 30-footers, all owned by members of the Royal Nova Scotia Yacht Squadron, swung into competition over Halifax waters last week. Two new boats from Chester, High Tide and Atlanta; were also salted to be at the starting line. The four new Halifax boats, Swallow, owned by Lieut. Gov. Tory, Blue Heron and Albattross, all 28-footers; and the Highlander, W. R. MacAskill's new 20-rater, were all designed by W. J. Rouse, designer of the famous racing schooner, Bluenose, and also of the Acadia, owned by the Royal Canadian Yacht Club of Toronto. The four newcomers to the Halifax fleet have added a fillip of interest to Harbor racing this season and yachting is booming daily.
