Man in the Moon

There have to be poor writers. Look at the people who read.

Love resembles spring time because it too produces saps.

A few months ago wiseheads remarked: "Whatever goes up has to come down," but today the optimists are hoping that the stocks which went down will come up.

The Brantford Exposition says compulsory baths for all inhabitants is the latest despotic order in Poland. It is believed that this will afford relief for a situation which hitherto has been regarded as soapless.

You may not have heard about the Irish girl who, asked in regard to her mistress's whereabouts said they were in the wash.

Recent arrivals in the city declare they are grievously disappointed. They expected to find it raining.
