PINERO'S PLAY AT WESTHOLME

"The Actress" is Fine Picture and There is Comedy and News Reel

Sir Arthur Wing Pinero's famous play "Trelawney of the Wells" is one of the greatest stage successes of all time. It has appeared and has been enjoyed by countless thousands in many parts of the world. Prince Rupert movie fans will have the opportunity tonight and tomorrow of seeing the picturized version of it.

The story of the play is followed faithfully in the picture which has been renamed for the screen "The Actress." That such a delightful play makes a delightful picture goes without saying. Beautiful Norma Shearer is in the stellar role and is seen at her very best. Ralph Forbes and Owen Moore head the noted supporting caste.

An excellent comedy and a news-reel complete the bill.

There will be special synchronized music and patrons may count on a pleasant evening's enjoyment.

BIG SPECIAL ENTERTAINMENT AT THE CAPITOL TONIGHT

Reginald Denny in "The Night Bird" Is Thrilling, Up-roarious Comedy; Charles Courtier, "Canada's Premier Sleight-of-Hand Artist," Opens Engagement; Is Exceptionally Clever Entertainer

In support of its policy to provide the "best" in entertainment for its patrons, the management of the Capitol is pleased to announce having booked for one week Charles Courtier, clever singer and sleight-of-hand performer. Mr. Courtier's unusually clever work has earned him the distinction of being Canada's premier sleight-of-hand artist, and Capitol patrons will hail with delight the introduction to the Capitol stage tonight of such an exceptional vaudeville artist. In his extensive repertoire of manipulating he makes use of such articles as playing cards, cigarettes, coins, thimbles, etc., in such a way as to appear most mystifying.

With this clever artist along with Reginald Denny in "The Night Bird" Capitol patrons are assured of a wonderfully fine evening's entertainment.

Many of the most entertaining features that can occur in a motion picture are jammed with gusto into the new Reginald Denny vehicle, "The Night Bird" which opens at the Capitol tonight.

This comedy has everything that makes for laughter and all the ingredients of the entertainment pie. The photoplay is a comedy-drama or a romantic-comedy or a thrill-comedy and it is all rolled into one riotous picture.

There is a love theme running through the story—a theme of transcendent beauty all the more unusual for "The Night Bird" is aimed for laughs and not only brings them down but touches the heart strings as well. The prize fighting in the picture is the best ever seen on local screens. There is more whirlwind action in this than in a typhoon.

Universal must have spent a lot of money making this production for it is featured by sets of extreme elegance, huge crowds of expensively dressed people, great crowds at the fights and other scenes of fine production value. The Artists' Ball sequence alone must have cost more than the ordinary picture for here seems to be concentrated all the feminine beauty and artistic endeavor of the modernists into one glorious, glittering wild party.

Denny's acting ability is responsible for the great majority of the laughs. His expressions in times of stress are ludicrous; he does one of those excruciating dances aided by Corliss Palmer, and the prize fight scenes where he must end the fight quickly to save his fiancée from the cruel villain present a new idea in motion picture comedy.

With heavy rain last night, the streets were pretty clear this morning. At 8:20 Saturday evening taxi cars driven by Claude V. Symes and George Brochu collided on McBride Street between Fourth and Fifth Avenues. The cars were somewhat damaged in the impact, but no one was hurt.
