W. Miller of New Windsor Notifies City of Intention To Proceed.

At the meeting of the City Council last night a letter was read from John W. Miller notifying them that he would take proceedings in the Supreme Court to set aside the recently passed by- WANTED-Woman cook. Wages law in regard to the licensing of barmaids and preventing juniors from entering poolrooms.

The letter said that some sections of the bylaw were ultra vires of the city in that it was not illegal for a person under eighteen years of age to enter a poolroom, they had no power to debar wo- TWO FURNISHED ROOMS wantmen, and no power to issue permits or prohibit girls from acting as barmaids.

Alderman Perry suggested that they were already beginning to miss Mr. Peters. He thought the appointment of a city solicitor should be considered soon in order to save themselves expense! land embarassment.

Alderman Casey said he had not questioned the legal aspect of the bylaw because he assumed it was laid before the acting city solicitor, Mr. Williams. He said that one result of the operation of the law had been to force out of employment the girl who was ment by phone. Mrs. M. Aivazoff, working for Killas' and who had Phone 133.

Alderman Perry said he sympathized a good deal with Alderman Casey's view. He thought five years was a long way to go back into a girl's record.

The letter was eventually reerred to the solicitor for report.
