Appreciation Expressed For Devoted Service to Cathedral and Presentations Made

Yesterday afternoon in St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral Hall members of the Women's Auxiliary gathered to honor Mr. and Mrs. R. V. G. LePine, who are leaving the city this evening, and may not return here. Mrs. LePine was presented with a diocesan life membership in the Women's Auxiliary, while the gift of a handsome embossed cigarette box was made to Mr. LePine.

The proceedings opened with W. A. prayer led by Bishop G. A. Rix and Mrs. Rix, diocesan president, conducted the life membership service. Mrs. Thomas Andrew, president of the Women's Auxiliary, read an appropriate address and presented the life membership certificate. The gold pin was presented by Mrs. G. A. Woodland, first vice-president.

Mrs. Rix explained that life membership was conferred only ipon members in good standing for good and faithful work and levotion to the Women's Auxiary. Mrs. LePine replied suitbly, thanking all the ladies for 'he great honor that had been bestowed upon her. She had always enjoyed the work, she said, and 'ad tried to do her best. She was sorry that she was leaving Prince Rupert, but would always therish memories of happy work and associations here. Should she eturn in the fall, she would be glad to again be identified with the work of the W. A.

Bishop Rix then made the presentation to Mr. LePine, on behalf of the congregation. The bishop eferred to Mr. LePine's splendid work for the church and the great aid it had been to the rector to ave such a man who was always ready and willing to help. The Women's Auxiliary particularly would miss Mr. LePine at its annual bazaar. He concluded by vishing Mr. LePine every success in the future.

Mr. LePine suitably voiced his appreciation. He had been choir boy in church ever since he could remember, he said. In Prince Rupert he had done for the church only what he deemed to be his duty. He hoped that some lay he might be able to return to Prince Rupert. Mr. LePine also cknowledged the great honor hat had been paid his wife by he ladies. Such things as these could not be bought with money and for that reason were cherish ed the more.

The proceedings concluded with the serving of afternoon tea and those present made their inspector for the federal governfarewells to Mr. and Mrs. LePine. ment, will arrive in the city
