Mrs. Forbes Makes Butter

She calls it Economy Butter, and it is well named, considering the quantity she gets, and the low cost of the extra butter. To half a pound of butter add one SMALL tin of Pacific Milk, in which has been dissolved a small pinch of baking soda. Whip 'till the butter has all been taken up and allow to set gradually in a cool place. It makes almost a pound of butter—good butter, too. Many will thank Mrs. Forbes for her kindness, as we do.

FOREGATHERING OF OLD TIMERS

Ball in Honor of Mrs. Tremayne Was Outstanding Social Event.

THOSE WHO BUILT CITY DANCED HOURS AWAY

Memories of ten years ago were brought back to many last night who gathered at the St. Andrew's Hall and danced the hours away to the compelling strains of the Westholme orchestra in honor of an old timer, Mrs. (Dr.) Tremayne. It was a great occasion for there has not been such a gathering for many a year of those who helped lay the foundations of the city. There were sons and daughters of the old timers who had grown up in the city and who remember little of the fun of roughing it which they enjoyed when they came here first.

The hall last night was redolent of Centre Street, of the spirit of the pioneer who had held on and conquered. Tales were told of the tent days before the streets were laid out and built and before the present buildings had sprung into existence. Withal it was a merry crowd, for they danced with the consciousness of having achieved.

To tell of the dance itself is impossible. Dances are dances, but this one was different. The spacious hall was well filled, the music was beyond criticism, the gowns were exquisite beyond male description, that might often be said of dances in the city, but on this occasion were seen many who seldom appear in a public hall, who came to enjoy themselves and who fulfilled their purpose to the fullest extent.

Mrs. Tremayne, the guest of the evening and her two delightful daughters, were kept very busy, so busy that it was difficult for any but old timers to get near them.

After the home waltz all remained and forming a circle sang Auld Lang Syne and the national anthem and then gave three cheers for the guest of the evening and her daughters.

Those Present. Mrs. Roberson and Mrs. Ritchie, who were chiefly responsible for the affair, were ably assisted by George Frizzell as floor manager and by many others in serving refreshments of the most enticing kind, and taken all in all it was the one outstanding social event of the summer season. The following were among those present:

Captain and Mrs. H. L. Roberson, Mr. and Mrs. J. Fred Ritchie and son Fred, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Nelson and Miss Madeline Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Tobey, Mr. J. H.
