

Copyright, 1927, by E. Phillips Oppenheim life, but spend it as you wish.

"I don't think you will. I don't

"Can I come and see how you book taken away."

be careful."

He smiled quietly.

for having sent you here."

"And I am thankful, too," she declared fervently. "You will have your bandage arranged at once if SYNOPSIS have done and the work you may do. Don't alter your manner to get am going to tell you quite frankfinds herself ly," he went on, after a moment's Suddenly the door pause, during which he consider that 500 pounds a very Colonel Dessiter, renowned explorer. He be glad. I don't think I knew it thing official about his manner. an extraordinary story to her but I was very tired of life as it away his cigarette and lit another. is set down. Then Colonel Dessiter, his than once sought his side.

INSTALMENT THREE

"No one shall ever know," she voice was still firm and his eyes promised.

remained clear, but she realized "I am convinced that you are from the way he moved that he trustworthy," he continued, "but was in increasing pain. these people are clever. There "Mergen will bring me a fresh were more of them on the heels bandage in a few minutes." of our little friend behind the told her. "He is quite expert. screen, and but for the fog they anybody can keep me alive, he will. would have found their way in but after all-it doesn't really matsomehow or other, dealt with me ter-now. For 17 years I have kept and helped themselves to these alike my nerve and my temper. letters. You may get home safely have seen men tortured withou tonight, especially as the fog is interfering, women baited almos really thicker, but their own secret to death, hideous deeds perpeservice is more than equal to ours, rated before my eyes, simply which here in England may be make me betray myself. I have said not to exist at all. They'll never flinched until that night in find you out in the long run. Warsaw. That was my end. * Only, it must be too late. This is As soon as it is possible. Miss what I want you to do. Miss Brown, you shall be given an op- replied Brown. You will sleep tonight with portunity of transcribing those your door locked and the book un- notes in safety. You will be free der your pillow. Have you a bank- then of your trust. You can go slam. Miss Brown had reached

She shook her head. "I have only 24 pounds in the She looked at him steadily. world and that is in the post- "I shall never forget," she said.

Smythe

oply for

"Open that drawer at your left think you will forget, and I know hand side," he directed. that you will be faithful. It was all She obeyed and discovered a wonderful chance which brought sealed envelope which she held you to rest upon my doorstep." out toward him.

"There are 500 pounds there in are tomorrow?" wat Bank of England notes," he said. "You must on no account come vaults of the bank."

"You will subscribe to the come denser. column. You will wait until there only afraid of getting lost outside. basketball practice. is a message for 'Edith' from because I shall have the book with 'Algernon.' A tube will be men- me. How do you think I had bet- The fight promoting firm of Canadian Legion practically.

"You can count it as part pay- begged. "If you do, I promise I and, gripping the satchel in her back door and down a flight of steps into an area. Finding his way by hugging the wall, he opened another door which led into what seemed to be a mews. There were two lights burning fiercely yet dim-ly through the fog from some vehicle, the nature of which she could scarcely distinguish. Mergen whispered for a moment with a vaguely seen figure. Then he turned to his companion.

"I am afraid you will find it a little uncomfortable, miss," he said, "but it will not be for long. Do you mind getting in?"

They let down some steps. Miss Brown climbed into what seemed to be a furniture delivery van, empty save for a single chair. A man scrambled in after her and stood by her side. The van started off. ment of your fee for the work you Through the window she could faintly discern another figure seatof ed by the driver "Tell me your address, please, miss," her companion begged. She told him, and, as soon as they had had emerged into a wider thoroughevidently a house changed his position slightly, fare, he opened the window and he "that in time to come you may repeated it to the driver.

Afterward he resumed his place, come in and take some dictation, and inadequate sum. You may find standing by the door and holding his manner indicates that the job is that from now on life may be- on to the handle with the air of thout adventure probably come a more difficult undertaking an attendant guarding a prison van. Miss Brown, whose stock of She saw the anxiety in his eyes curiosity was almost exhausted. and did her best to reassure him. nevertheless asked him one ques-"If it does," she declared, with tion. Notwithstanding his plain ound, who turns out to be a little confident smile, "I shall clothes there was certainly some-

"Are you a policeman?" He smiled down upon her in non-

He gave a nod of content, threw committal fashion. "Not in the ordinary sense of the penetrates There were beads of sweat upon word, miss," he replied, "but I'm his forehead and his hand more going to look after you, all right." They blundered their way "I do wish you would let me try through the streets, climbed the to arrange that bandage better." curbstone near Hyde Park Corner. she begged. "It is absurd to have and finally finding a clearer patch made up your mind that you are in Piccadilly, rattled along at a quite respectable speed, until they squeezed in between a stationer's Brown's abode. Her escort helped her to descend, griping her tightly

"Don't stand about, miss," he begged. "This fog isn't whole- casions. The driver had also descended from his seat, and with the third man, who had followed him, formaround her. Miss Brown inserted her key and opened the door. 'All right inside, miss?" one of the men asked anxiously.

Miss Brown looked into her room one round was even. which was on the ground floor. "Quite all right, thank you," she

The door, which fastened with a spring lock, was closed with a little back to your life of yesterday, and home safely.

(Continued)

Sport Chat

"Tomorrow morning you will go to near this house," 'he insisted After several delays, basketball 1083. The Grotto won three of the South Audley Street Branch gravely. "You must look upon me organization at Anyox for the the five games, the high break of of the Central Bank and open an from tonight as a person who has coming winter is now proceeding, the evening being 51 which was account. You will deposit your passed out of your life. If ever There will be a good list of men's run by George Waugh. notebook and those letters in the there is need for any further com- teams with entries from the Con- The individual scores were as munication between us, you can centrator, Coke Plant, Boiler Shop, follows: "You don't wish me to tran, trust Mergen, and only Mergen. Mechanics. Electrical Department C. P. Balagno (E!ks), 127; W. J. scribe my notes then?" she asked. Until you receive the message, and, probably, the Mine but it is Nelson (Grotto), 250. plied. "I want you to wait until She rose to her feet and began mediate League and nothing, as Waugh, 250. "How shall I know about him?" fog which seemed to have be- senior league will be manned by 247. many who are comparative be- W. E. Williscroft, 250; M. M. Times," he told her. "Every morn- "I am not in the least nervous ginners at the game. The gymna- McLachlan, 217. ing you will read the personal about myself," she said. "I am sium is new being allotted for The league standing to date:

tioned in the message. It will pro- ter try to get back to Shepherd's Herman Taylor and Bob Gunnis. Elks bably sound ridiculous. You must Market?" along with Bob Duffy, has offered not mind that. Most of those fool- "All that is arranged,' 'he told Max Schmeling, Teuton heavyapparently from young people were at work. He is waiting out- 15-round bout in Atlantic City SCHEDULE FOR who have met in busses, or from side for you." against the best available opponwives who are terrified of jealous On the corner of the mantel- ent in January. Jack Sharkey is husbands, are really code messages piece was lying a trifle at which believed under exclusive contract from members of the criminal she had gazed with fascinated to Madison Square Garden so world or from people in my po- eyes more than once. She leaned either Tommy Loughran or Young Games to Be Played Twice a Week over and took it into her hand—a Stribling may be called upon to "What am I to do with the 500 small but deadly-looking auto- face the German. It has been pounds?" Miss Brown inquired matic loaded in five chambers. | definitely announced that Jack "Will you give me this?" she Dempsey will not be selected.

If it's the last thing Sir Thomas ciety carpet bowling season: Lipton does, the yachtsman and tea magnate says, he is going to A McLeod rink. "The time for that sort of get the America cup. "That mug." thing," he remarked, "has almost he says, "has been out of England M. Andrews rink. passed. I remember when I had to for 78 years now; I'd give anya revolver every week of my thing to get it back, if only for a McLeod rink. life. I used that little affair this week. "Shamrock V, with which afternoon for the first time for a I'm going to compete next year. J. year. Yes, take it if you will, but is being built near Southampton I can tell you the new boat will M Andrews rink. She reopened her satchel and have all the latest, most modern slipped it in. She shivered a little equipment that can be found. And Taylor rink. as she remembered that the one they tell me the Americans are November 22-J. Watson rink vs. empty barrel meant a man's life. now building four boats to beat M. Andrews rink. Then she finished buttoning up me with. They won't do it this her mackintosh, set her hat time." Sir Thomas says he would McLeod rink. straight and looked down at him not sail the Shamrock V across timidly. He held out his hand. | the ocean himself. "I always look Andrews rink. "Good-by, Miss Brown," he said. for the biggest boats when "I am very thankful to the fog cross the water," he says.

	I go?"
1	"Immediately." he assured her	G.	Ttl.	A
53	Upon the threshold she gave a	J. Hillman (G)4 1	000	2
8		D. Brown (G)		2
28		the second secon	500 -	2
	powering—a dead man behind the		747	2
	screen, a dying man upon the sofa.		984	2
	and all the throb and glamour of		739	2
	that marvelous story reproduced in		264	2
9	cold black ink in the book she was		707	2
а	corrying She closed her ever helf	M. M. McLachlan (G) 4	934	2
	carrying She closed her eyes, half		703	9
	expecting to reopen them and find	The state of the s		2 herself still sitting in the fog upon	J. W. Scott (CL)3	692	4
	the bottom step outside the house.		458	4
	As a matter of fact, she reopened		444	2
	them in the hall to find Mergen		210	2
	waiting for her.	W. E. Williscroft (E)2	413	2
	"Will you please come this way,	A. Donald (E)3	608	2
	miss, and follow me closely?" he	U. Balagno (E)3	541	1
	begged.	F. G. Pyle (CL)3	473	1
	He relieved her of her typewriter	GAHOWS (G)	118	1
	COLUMN TO THE PROPERTY OF THE	CHRONIC SECTION AND AND ADDRESS OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PROPERT

WAS BEATEN LAST EVENING

Ace Hudkins, who unsuccessfully attempted to wrest from Mickey Walker the middleweight title at Los Angeles.

Mickey Walker Outfought Hudkins In Ten Rounds at Los Angeles, Taking Eight Out of Ten Rounds

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 30-Mickey Walker successfully came to a standstill before the defended his middleweight crown here last night when he shabby little house, gave Ace Hudkins, the Nebraska wildcat, a terrific and a baker's shop, which was Miss punching in ten rounds to win the decision.

The champion not only outfought Hudkins in nearly every round, but had the Nebraskan groggy on several oc- provoke frowns on more than one Visitor-Do you know who

A crowd of 25,000 saw the contest.

Walkers devastating short lefts and rights to the jaw had Hudkins in a bad way in the opening round. Again in a complete little bodyguard the sixth the champion slipped his rugged opponent with a right to the jaw that had him dazed and hanging on.

Walker had eight of the rounds, Hudkins had one, and

STOCK QUOTATIONS

(Courtesy S. D. Johnston Co.)

Bayview, 2, Nil.

Dunwell, Nil, 12.

Golconda, 82, 88,

L. & L., 1, 11/2.

Lucky Jim, 7, Nil.

Grandview, 191/2, 20.

Big Missouri, 67, 70.

Cork Province, 6, 71/2.

Duthie Mines, 43, 45.

Georgia River, 12, 15.

George Copper, 1.60, 1.70.

Intern. Coal & Coke, 30, Nil.

Kootenay Florence, 8, 81/2.

Kootenay King, 12, 121/2.

Morton Woolsey. 2, 21/2.

Marmot River Gold, 2, Nil.

Reeves Macdonald, 97, 1.00.

Marmot Metals, 11/2, 21/2.

National Silver, 91/2, 10.

Noble Five, 391/2, 40.

Oregon Copper, 15, 16,

Pend Oreille, 2.65, Nil.

Premier, 1.70, 1.71.

Porter-Idaho, 22. 24.

Rufus-Argenta, 8, 10.

Silverado Cons., 28, 30.

Topley Richfield, 4, 5.

Toric Mines, 50, Nil.

Whitewater, 251/2, 30.

A. P. Con., 2.22, 2.23.

Fabyan Pete. 71/2. 73/4.

United, 77, 80. Sterling Pacific, 95, 96.

TORONTO STOCKS

Afternoon Closing Prices

International Nickel, 36.25, 36.75.

Mining Corporation, 3.05, 3.10.

Sherritt Gordon, 4.95, 5.00.

Wright Hargraves, 1.30, 1.35.

Treadwell Yukon, 6.00, 7.00.

Leslie Ellis, who was assistant

Sudbury Basin, 5.40, 5.45.

Sterling Pacific, 85, Nil.

Teck Hughes, 5.25, 5.30,

Ventures. 4.00, 4.10.

Nipissing, 2.10, 2.15.

Calmont, 1.18, 1.20.

Dalhousie, 1.65, 1.75.

Home, 11.90, 12.00.

Freehold, 95, 1.00.

Hargal, 1.00, Nil.

Dallas, 35, Nil.

Mercury, 60, 63.

Amulet, 2.30, 2.35

Mandy, 27, 33.

Falconbridge, 6.75, 7.00.

Hudson Bay, 11.25, Nil.

Imperial Oil, Nil, 31.50.

McIntyre, 12.75, 13.00.

Noranda, 32.75. 33.00.

Stadacona, 5, 51/2.

Woodbine, 3, $3\frac{1}{2}$.

Bluebird, 4, 5.

Ruth-Hope, 23, 26.

Snowflake, 15, 16,

Sunloch, Nil, 1.00.

Terminus, 2. Nil.

Decisive Win

Defeated Elks in Billiard League Last Night by Aggregate Score of 1214 to 1083 decisive last night, defeating the Elks by

"Not for the moment,' 'he re- carry on with your everyday life." | not likely there will be an Inter- | A. A. Easson, 222; George the man who takes up my work to button up her mackintosh. She vet, has been heard from the A. Donald, 234; J. Hillman, 250. looked doubtfully at the shaft of ladies. As matters now stand, the F. H. Stephens, 250; J. Andrews,

Silver Crest, 43/4, 5.

During Winter by St Andrew's Society Members

Following is the schedule for the first half of the St.. Andrew's So-November 1-C. Taylor rink vs.

November 4-J. McLean rink vs. November 7-J. Frew rink vs. A.

November 11-J. Watson rink vs. McLean rink. November 15-C. Taylor rink vs. November 18-J. Frew rink vs. C.

November 25-J. McLean vs. A. November 29-J. Frew rink vs. M

December 2-J. Watson rink vs.

C. Taylor rink. December 6-A. McLeod rink vs. M. Andrews rink. December 9-J. Frew rink vs. J. McLean rink December 12-J. Watson rink vs.

. McLeod rink

December 16-C. Taylor rink vs. McLean rink. The rinks are composed as fol-1-J. Frew, skip, J. Haddon, J. Smith and J. H. Sheddon.

2 J. Watson, skip, B. Dalgarno, purser aboard the steamer Princess Charlotte during the past 36 H. Steen and D. Finlayson. 3 C. Taylor, skip, G. Scott, R summer, was going north as purser aboard the Princess Mary which was in port this afternoon bound for Alaska. 6-M. Andrews, skip, W. Barton, were passengers going through the city aboard the Princess Mary J. Frew and J. Watson rinks were this afternoon bound for Juneau. 158 to have played last night, but the Mr. Gastonguay is a well known ed was $380,083 less than last year, attend mass. though this is explained by the fact In some cases priests cor that there were fewer days of racing the services at the cemeter than in the preceding year. In On- others the families and friend tario an increase in betting is rec- tented themselves with lav orded, eight tracks being responsi- in front of the closed doors ble for the sum of $27,028,076, $15,- church, and at the burial 636,347 of which amount changed This sort of thing is still a free hands at the four courses in and occurrence. Love, too, has for about Toronto. The people of Que- way. Every now and then the bec do not appear so addicted to tion Francaise" prints an acc race track gambling, and there was of those who have most rea decrease of $147,778, as compared succeeded in marrying while with 1928, the total amount "put maining true both to their up" being $7,177,709, the bulk of and the movement to restore which was wagered on the tracks throne. at Montreal.

Less Betting On Races in Ontario

Royalists Find It Difficult to Marry Today in France

Are Under Ban of Church in That and sweethearts who happen to be of the commoners. But he is no both royalists and Roman Catholics France, and is not likely to be have their troubles these demo- pretenders to the throne are or cratic days when they want to mar- pelled by the republic to stay ry. It is not the republic that exile. The Duc de Guise li stands in the way; it is the churrch. Belgium, and In many dioceses they are not per- ice and clinks glasses with mitted to wed in front of the altar. Albert in Brussels.

The carryings on of the royalists with tongue and pen and occasionally more solid weapons began to episcopal brow several years ago, my little man? Early in 1927 the "Action Fran- Willie - Certainly? Don't caise," daily organ of the royalist know who you are?-Bellevilled movement, was placed on the Vati- tario.

can's index. Later, a num French bishops signed a proclation denouncing, the movement calling upon the royalists to g their allegiance to the " Française" under pain of bei the ban was applied, or, at the first to attract attention

In many cases the engaged turned away from the port the church, are allowed in th the back door and married by sacristy. But just as often they wed only "in nigris" in the b home. Oftentimes, if the brid her chosen man be of promin the Duc de Guise, pretender to at the marriage," usually b sieur le Marquis de X. or Mo le Comte de Y.

Even if he lived in France Duc would be prevented by then PARIS, Oct. 30 .- French swains tocol from attending the mam

Embarrassing Moments

JUST AS YOU GAIN A CERTAIN AMOUNT OF SAFETY FROM THE "RAT" - A "BUMBLE BEE" BUZZES IN ----

Goldbloom has just returned from the East and has on display a wonderful selection of furs. Goldbloom is a keen buyer and can offer his customers prices at least 35 Per Cent Less Than Similar Goods Can. Be Purchased Elsewhere!

Goldbloom, the Old Reliable, after being in business for twenty years, has not yet had a dissatisfied customer.

Third Avenue, Next Bank of Montreal