Miss Kennedy, society editor of the Victoria Daily Colonist, and Mrs. A. L. Robinson, sister of Jack Barnsley of the Union Steamship Co.'s local office, and formerly a resident of this city, were in the city yesterday afternoon. They made the round trip to Alice Arm on the Camosun.

The Green Watch Co. of Cincinnati have appointed John Bulger as their agent for Northern B.C. The Green watch is noted for its fine quality and attractive appearance, and on account of being extensively advertised in the magazines lately, is becoming quite widely known and popular. Mr. Bulger expects to have a very good selection on hand in the near future. 1f

On Sunday afternoon a number of young people had the pleasure of enjoying a boat ride on the Glen Rosa out to Hecate Strait in the neighborhood of Stephens Island. In the beautiful warm day it was a particularly delightful trip and the ocean breezes and swells were very exhilarating. The party returned late in the evening.

Many cannery hands are arriving from the Skeena on every train just now, as the sockeye pack is nearly over and the cohorts are not running in very large numbers. Many of the Orientals who have been employed in the industry are returning to take positions for the winter in the south. Both day coaches were filled on last night's train with employees who are through for the year.

ADDRESSED GATHERING
Col. C. W. Peck Speaks at Meeting of Great War Veterans.

There was a special meeting of the Great War Veterans' Association last evening at which Col. C. W. Peck gave a very inspiring address to his returned comrades. The meeting had been called primarily to hear F. A. Barter, the travelling representative of the Pensions Board at Ottawa, but in spite of the wire sent announcing his coming, he did not arrive on the train last evening. Another meeting will very likely be called upon his arrival.

CORPORAL ADAMS RETURNS FROM EAST

Corporal Herbert Adams was among the arrivals from the east by the train last evening on a visit with his relatives, Mr. and Mrs. W. Adams of Ninth Avenue. Corporal Adams has seen five years' service with the Army Medical Corps and since his return from overseas has been stationed in one of the Quebec Military Hospitals.

Bert left Prince Rupert to join the corps in Vancouver and later transferred to the medical attachment of the engineers. He does not expect to remain here for any length of time.

Your Attention China-ward

If we wanted to (and we do) we couldn't explain it in an ad. All we can tell you is that it came from England and France and some from Japan.

Cups and saucers, plates and odd pieces Aynsley, Limoges, DouRon, etc.

Now we think we know China that's really China pretty well.

We would like your opinion.
