BAPTISTS HEAR OF ACTIVITIES CHURCH WORK

Annual Meeting of Congregation and Social Held Last Night

The annual social meeting of the congregation of the First Baptist Church was held last evening and was characterized by much cordiality and optimism. The pastor, Rev. W. F. Price, presided, and conducted devotions. Reports of the various branches of the church's activities were presented, all showing that much faithful and zealous service had been rendered to the cause of Christ during the past year.

J. H. Smith read the report of the deacon's board, which while lamenting that additions to the membership had not been large, expressed the conviction that much good had been accomplished. The report went on to describe the various improvements that had been effected to the church premises during the year. Purchase of new pews, installation of new heating system, provision of a new organ, together with the renovation of the auditorium. Hearty thanks were tendered to the Ladies' Aid for its help in raising funds, to the organist for his efficient and faithful services, and to the officers and teachers of the Sunday School. The report proceeded to say: Our First Baptist Church is indeed fortunate in having a pastor of the ability and leadership of Rev. W. F. Price. He is a man who adheres close to the line of the old gospel truths, preaching Jesus Christ as the Saviour of the world, and, in addition, is broadminded and energetic. Assisted by his equally energetic wife they can always be found using their energy and talents in the work of the church and in the service of the Master. Your diaconate wishes to convey to our pastor and Mrs. Price their heartfelt thanks for their untiring efforts on behalf of the church during the past year.

The financial report, presented by Mrs. J. D. Thurber, showed that the total amount raised by the church from all sources during the year was $2761.

Mrs. Price gave the report of the missionary offerings, showing that $232 had been contributed to missions.

The report of the Sunday school was read by Mrs. P. H. Linzey, and showed that work to be in a very healthy condition with an enrollment of 98.

Miss B. Derry presented a report from the Fireside Club, which was most encouraging.

An account of the work of the Mission Band received from M. S. S. Dawson, and a financial statement by Mrs. R. Walker showed that successful work had been done, in particular a substantial parcel of goods made by the ladies of the Mission Circle and girls of the Mission Band had been sent to the missionaries in India. M. S. J. D. Thurber, secretary of the Ladies' Aid, gave a report of the work of that organization, proving that great activity had been displayed, and the treasurer's statement given by Mrs. F. Morris recorded that the sum of $936 had been raised during the year.

P. H. Linzey gave a brief historical sketch of the church's progress since its formation, in which he mentioned the encouraging fact that though there was 10 years ago a debt of over $10,000 on the church property, this had been reduced to about $2000. During the evening musical numbers were contributed by Miss B. Derry and V. Houston, W. V. Davies being accompanist.

At the close refreshments were served and an enjoyable time was spent.

There were thirty-nine passengers aboard the steamer Princess Mary which called in port yesterday afternoon southbound from Skagway to Vancouver. The following four disembarked here: Demetri Tezeff, Vancouver laborer; Mrs. Leola May Anderson, Spokane; N. L. Freeman, Prince Rupert, and Rev. Father A. Leahey, Los Angeles.
