Man in the Moon

For it's oh to be a bear
With a hole in which to crawl
And there forget to waken till
The spring begins to call.

The man who expects to make money faster than the family can spend it is an optimist.

The old fashioned blacksmiths are all working in garages disguised as auto mechanics.

Say, boys, if you are in the habit of complaining around home, never get married, for the ambulance will be waiting for you around the corner.

Laying eggs is a meritorious deed for a hen but she must not lay them from the roost.

There's one thing about riding in a hearse, nobody tries to drive from the back seat.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

February 2, 1919

The halibut fishing vessels of the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co. are being tied up as a result of a disagreement over the amount which the men are to receive as their share in the proceeds on the company lay. The old agreement expired yesterday. If the men do not fish at the prices set, the company threatens to tie up the boats altogether.

Owing to the large amount of fish being offered, the halibut price here has taken a decided drop, the highest bid today being 15.6c and 12c. Boats in are the Tom and Al, Kodiak, Lebanon, Saturn, Helena, Volunteer, Verna, Nellie and Thelma.

Miners and prospectors who are interested in the Alice Arm country are confident that the Dolly Varden Railway debacle will soon be settled by the provincial government. It is said that there are no less than eight mines along this eighteen-mile railway which are ready to ship.

Was Tortured With Eczema For Years

Mrs. George Shambler, 119 Creighton St., Halifax, N.S., writes:—"After being tortured with eczema, for years, and trying everything possible from doctors and drug stores, a friend recommended me to take

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS

I sent my husband to get me a bottle, and after I had taken it I noticed the cooling of my blood, so he advised me to continue, and after taking several bottles I can truly say it is a wonderful medicine."

EMBARRASSING MOMENTS

SHE saw them in her kitchen—a host of elf-like men. A miller, a soap maker, a travelling salesman. A band of Lilliputians, each representing some one local industry in which her fellow men and women are employed.

Back of each local product she saw ambitious families just like her own. That is why she enjoyed a sense of pride and loyalty every time she purchased the products of her fellow men. In every room in her house she saw the vision of the elfine workmen, for the articles of her home from attic to basement were the products of her home land.

There's a moral to this story

Every time a housewife purchases a B.C. Product, B.C. husbands benefit. B.C. industries are kept active replacing the products purchased by local housewives. Every woman who knows the prosperity of British Columbia husbands depends on their wives asks first: "Is it made in B.C.?"

SO MANY HUSBANDS DEPEND ON ME

A fable for British Columbia Housewives
