

HISTORIC OXFORD PAGEANT A PRISM OF BRILLIANT COLORS

THE OXFORD PAGEANT—FEAST OF THE CHERRY BLOSSOM FARRINGTON

The annual pageant held at Oxford, England, was more colorful and brilliant than ever before. The feast of the cherry blossom, one of the most attractive scenes of the affair, is pictured above.

HUNTING WILL OPEN SOON

Duck Season Commences September 6 and Deer on 13th of September.

ROD AND GUN CLUB FORMED AT TELKWA

Already the Omineca Rod and Gun Club has been formed in the interior in readiness for the coming shooting season. Officers have been appointed and already there is considerable interest about methods which may be adopted to help conserve the game and to urge further prosecutions under the Game Act.

Locally the sons of Nimrod have been stirring uneasily in their hard office chairs and have been glancing furtively across the harbor with thoughts of the deer trooping silently around amongst the trees. Soon the season will be open and already the game regulations have been posted in conspicuous places for all interested.

Deer (mule, white tail and coast) throughout the province, except on the Queen Charlotte Islands, open season from September 13, 1919, to December 15, 1919, both dates inclusive.

Ducks and geese in the Northern District from 6 a. m. September 6 to December 20, 1919, both dates inclusive.

Grouse in the Northern District to the south of the 56th parallel, which includes all points from slightly north of Stewart to the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, open season from September 6, 1919, to December 21, 1919, both dates inclusive.

The daily bag limit for ducks is twenty and total bag limit one hundred and fifty.

The daily bag limit for geese is ten and the total bag limit fifty. The bag limit for deer in the Northern District is three of one species and four altogether.

Daily bag limit for grouse is six for any one species, nor more than twelve for all species in any one day; total bag limit fifty.

PICNIC PARTY WENT TO DIGBY ISLAND

Laura F. Loaned to Young People For Enjoyable Outing.

Yesterday afternoon a very enjoyable picnic was held at Digby Island near the ways, when a number of young people went over in the Laura F., kindly lent by George Frizzell for the occasion. Howard Frizzell was the engineer for the trip and he proved very capable indeed and everything went without a hitch.

The party had been arranged for Miss Helen Hibbard, but she was unavoidably absent on account of the sickness of her brother. Mrs. J. R. Mitchell and Miss Berringer were in charge of the supper arrangements and after the strenuous afternoon all feasted very heartily. An early start was made as rain in the evening put a damper on the outside playing which had been so enjoyed earlier in the day.

Those in the party were: Margaret Lindsay, Caroline Mitchell, Alice Allen, Marjorie Carter, Annie Kelly, Kathleen Allen, Howard Frizzell, Geo. Roberts, George Mitchell, Charles Currie, Eddie Clapp, Willie and Alex Mitchell, Roy Lancaster, Miss Berringer and Mrs. Mitchell.

Sport Briefs

One of the most interesting features of the Labor Day celebration will be the race between the coxwainless four shell and the Alice B. It should be very likely that in a short distance that the men in the boat would win, but it is questioned in waterfront circles very much if they can continue the pace for half a mile. It is human effort pitted against mechanical energy and the result will be watched with interest.

According to the papers received from the interior the Telkwa baseball team is going to be in fine shape for the game on September 1. They have been practising very steadily throughout the whole season and unless Prince Rupert sends a crack team the trophy will very likely be left with the interior boys.

In the wrestling match held last Friday evening in the Kitsault House, Alice Arm, between Jack Kennedy, the champion of the Crow's Nest, and Bud Murphy of Alice Arm, the former was winner in two straight falls. The time for the first fall took thirty seconds with the opponents struggling hard. In the second Murphy was less able to hold up his end and came to defeat in sixteen minutes. The match was for the championship of Northern British Columbia and the building was packed with interested sport fans.
