CANADA AND WORLD COURT

Canada is now a member of the world court. She formally joined on Saturday, the only reservation made by 2, Mrs. Downing. this country being that the court does not have jurisdiction over disputes between members of the British Commonwealth of Nations, which members of the British Empire will settle in their own way.

The world court is the first organization of its kind to Thomson; 2, Mrs. Geo. Dover. be established and all the nations joining it agree to abide by its findings without recourse to war. It is another step forward in the peace campaign now being waged.

CONGRATULATIONS TO DEAN

The first dean of Prince Rupert has been appointed in the person of Rev. J. G. Gibson, rector of St. Andrew's lin; 2, Mrs. H. Mist. Anglican Church, now proclaimed as the cathedral of the diocese. The Daily News extends its congratulations to Gratn; 2, Mrs. Will Robinson. the dean, feeling sure that he will carry out the work of the office with dignity and energy.

Prince Ruperts importance is once more set forth in 2, Mrs. Turner. this action of the head of the Anglican Church in this diocese.

HIGHWAY TO ALASKA

Once more we wish to state emphatically and without ing; 2, Mrs. E. Haugland. equivocation that Prince Rupert will not be satisfied with any p'an for linking up Alaska with Vancouver without first completing the link between Vancouver and Prince Rupert.

There may be something spectacular about the idea of Mrs. E. Haugland. the big highway from north to south, but Prince Rupert | Mustard pickles-1, Mrs. Downhas been trying for a long time to secure appropriations for its highway and without any great measure of success. To now have that work overshadowed by a highway to serve the American people, much as we admire Mrs. Downing. them, is altogether out of place. First things must come

A woman is said to have been the cause of man leaving paradise, and woman usually leads him back.

GRAIN ROLLING IN HERE

We are glad to know that grain is now rolling toward Prince Rupert in considerable quantities and that the elevator here is to be busy. We felt sure that this port could " not be kept out of its rightfu! business again this year. Doubtless there must have been some good reason for the action of last year in shutting down the local elevator in points in home cooking-Mrs. Geo. the middle of the season. However, no reason for action Dover. of this kind can be satisfactory to Prince Rupert. We are not expecting any repetition of it.

Business may go to the dogs during dog days but growling about it won't help.
