the fair, the directors held there will be a small surplus to turn over to the new board of directors. Prize money and other accounts were ordered paid in full and checks will be mailed as soon as the government grant for the year is received.

The secretary reported a number of helpful suggestions made by the judges, chief among these being that the time seemed to have come to have a two-day fair. The number of exhibits have increased so materially-101 more entries this year than last—that the work of judging took too long to be done advantageously. the morning of the fair, and by having a two-day rair much of the congestion and overcrowding during the placing of entries would be overcome.

Huntsmen Cross Galloway Rapids to Seek Venison Across From Island

The Kaien Island highway has opened up a new route for hunters to fare forth from the city. Every Sunday sees cars parked at the end of the road, having taken out hunters who cross Galloway Rapids in small boats to hunt across from the island. Some deer have already been brought in that way this season.
