COSTS A LOT FEED SENATE

Investigation Asked In U.S. Congress Regard to Loss of $5,000 on Restaurant

WASHINGTON, April 27:—A Congressional investigation is being asked to probe the cost of feeding the United States senators. It came up yesterday in connection with a special vote of $350,000 expenses of the special session of Congress when it developed that $5,000 of the amount was to cover the cost of maintaining the senate restaurant which was operated at a loss. It was pointed out that the restaurant in the house was self-sustaining.

Hon. T. D. Pattullo, minister of lands, will arrive in the city tomorrow morning from Victoria. Together with Frank Nobley M. L. A. he will make a trip into Atlin riding.

Jack Kavanagh will address an organization meeting of the One Big Union in the Westholme Theatre tonight. He admits that the objects of the O. B. U. are to enforce the six-hour day and eliminate profits.

Twenty-four boats are in with halibut catches. The prevailing price is around 10c and 6c.

The souks, or covered bazaars, of Tunis surpass all others in North Africa. The bazaar quarter is a whole city under one roof with a labyrinth of narrow, tortuous lanes, alleys and passages. Each of the trades has its own lane, one devoted to perfumes, another to jewelry, a third to textiles, and so on; an arrangement which tends to make shopping and bargaining easy.
