Addresses Terrace Board of Trade and Answers Questions Asked There

TERRACE, Oct. 4 .- W. K. Gwyer, district enegineer, addressed the council of the Board of Trade Tuesprior to leaving for Seattle, where day evening, reviewing briefly the she plans to locate. Miss Ross has work done throughout the district spent the past three years in Haduring the past year. He said experience had shown that more machinery was needed and he hoped to have more another year. Equipwere recently married in Prince ment had been brought from Kit-Rupert, have been spending a few wanga to speed up the work on the Terrace to Usk highway. Approximately sixty thousand dollars had been spent on that road this year and work would continue as long as weather permitted. There was a reasonable prospect of that part of Miss Porter of San Jose, Cal. the road being opened for traffic who is a visitor at the home of her sister, Mrs. C. R. Gilbert, and
