

Man in the Moon

If you follow the beaten track your footprints in the sand of time will soon be erased.

The less you have the more there is for you to get. Why worry?

If you don't get up in the morning you are not likely to get up in the world.

You can't always tell a man by the whiskers on his face.

Some people do not like facts. They cramp the style.

You cannot always tell a man by the way in which he acts, but if by chance you tell a man Be sure you stick to facts.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

May 16, 1919

Mrs. Hutchinson, wife of the station agent at Pacific, died in the local hospital last night from injuries sustained in the morning when she was burned by an exploding oil stove. She was rushed to the city by train.

Because he will be hiring labor during the coming year, W. E. Thompson last night resigned as president of the Prince Rupert Trades & Labor Council.

Eastern capitalists have taken an option on the Lone Star claim on Legate Creek, near Pacific which is owned by J. M. Harrington and Jack Burns.
