"ALIAS JIMMY VALENTINE" STARRING WILLIAM HAINES IS AT CAPITOL TONIGHT

William Haines' latest picture, "Alias Jimmy Valentine," made from the famous stage play will play a two day engagement at the Capitol Theatre, beginning tonight.

The picture is of interest because it gives the star his first real chance at a straight dramatic role. Hitherto, his name has been associated with roles of the smart-aleck type, and the comedy angle has predominated. In "Alias Jimy Valentine," while there are a number of funny moments, the dramatic interest has been emphasized first of all.

Noted players in the supporting cast include Leila Hyams, Karl Dane, Lionel Barrymore and Tully Marshall. Jack Conway directed from an adaptation by A. P. Younger. Joe Farnham wrote the titles.

Haines plays a young safe cracker who outwits the police at every turn. Then he meets a girl, determines to go straight, and is tracked by his old enemy, Detective Doyle, in a succession of scenes full of excitement and surprise.
