

LIMITED s & Contractors

BO-ME-HI NEWS

Advertising Manager-Rena Ingram

Social Editor-Pat Hill Sports Editor-Bill Toderas Junior Reporters-Jimmy Bateman, Joan Anderson Reporters-Jean Chesher, Mae Newton, Marjorie Way,

Gregory Forbes, Bert Tipton, Dick Kilborn

West Friday

tine formal dance for senior past year. students. The dance is to be held in the Armories with the music ches of the six candidates: supplied by Andy McNaughton. A floor show will start off the evening at 9:00 o'clock with solos by Benita Windle and others An added attraction will be number by the "Boys Basketball

Grade 13 Theme

That nothing is impossible To me is just a wheeze, For nothing's what the 13's do With the very greatest ease. -Anon, anon, anon,

Junior Valentine University Entrance course. Party on Tonight

Juniors will be having their at Civic Centre. Dancing and good choice in nominating sevp.m. until 11:30 p.m. Refresh- blonde and is five foot, two, has ments will be served.

An assembly was held in th Civic Centre on January 26 to welcome the Wrangell Wolves. The school band opened the give up too soon.

assembly by playing the national anthems of Canada and the United States. Mr. Hurst gave a brief welcoming speech after which the Wrangell Wolves manager introduced the members of his team.

MacDonald, with Dick Flood's doesn't like to admit it she Loved by You." During the course of the pro- Hr favorite sports are basket gram Lawrence Kristmanson ball and swimming. Se has presented "Gus" Nickerson with position on the girls' basketbali and Vic Brain with gifts for the intelligent. She is taking a queen. excellent "Future Citizens Day" University Entrance course, and essays which they had submit- her language is Latin.

The students sang the Bo-Me-likes to wear any kind of a ha Hi song which was led by Song Queen Barbara Moore. Cheer Leaders Rena Ingram, Pat Hill and Leona Webster impressed the assembly with their fine cheerleading form.

The assembly came to a close with the singing of "God Save the King."

The Lover's Plea

One wint'ry night the world lay And still as good worlds

should. When a lover's wail to no avail

Disturbed the neighborhood, "Come out," he cried, "dear June, the moon Is riding high and fair, But all is dark within the park, tion, hiking and camping. Come out and meet me there.

us spoon, And all the stars above Will watch and see, and envy

Come out and be my love." At last the door was opened for

A tear-stained face to show. the fight!

In quiet then he entered in, In peace, for that is life.

A man must act the swain to Forgiveness from his wife.

And if such a one shall courting In the old, romantic way,

By mem'ry's night she'll see the

Club Six Candidates In Field Editor-in-Chief-Evelyn Smith. For Year's Regal Honors

Booth Memorial High School is now in the throes of the annual School Queen campaign with six comely girls, aspirants chosen by as many classes, in the field for this coveted honor. Class nominations were on the basis of personality, scholastic standing, etc. The final decision of the student body will be made secret ballot immediately prior to the Valentine formal; party which will take place in the Armory next Friday night. The winner will be done due honor at the prom with presentation of prizes and recognition as the school's queen for the year Friday the sixteenth is the in succession to Iona Hardy who date set for the annual Valen- ruled with such grace during the

Hereunder are thumbnail sket

Well, boys, don't give up hope just because Alice is "going about running for queen, June steady" right now Alice is five said: "I didn't even dream foot three, has dark hair and is being nominated for a candideasy on the eyes. She is a runce ate!" Rupert product having lived, Her campaign managers are here all her life. She says she Marjorie Way and Carole Moore- for several years. does not like all boys, just a few house special ones. The grade nine and Taking top places in June's ten boys seem to look at her interest are her hobbies with a grin. I wonder why? Her music and marching. hobby is playing the piano and in sports she likes watching baskethall games. She is taking Here's one of the grade twelve annual Valentin Party tonight entries and they surely made a best sport is ice skating.

Eileen seems to be "going go to UBC. steady" now but, boys, don't Cast your eyes on this small Margaret Giske, impersonat- paragraph telling you all about ing Mr. Evans, then introduced that good looking girl. Verna the Bo-Me-Hi Rainbirds who Graham. Verna is five foot five, were impersonated by girls from 'slender, has "real" brunette hair the Pep Club. When the hilar- and green eyes, and you seldom ity of these introductions had see her without a smile on her ended the boys were introduced face. She came to Prince Ruby Gordon Graham. - . | pert last August from Chilli-June Henry and Helen Kron- wack, her home town, bringing dichuck thrilled the audience with her many new cheers for with a vocal duet. Then Luelia the Cheer Squad. Though she help, amused the assembly with very popular among the boys her version of "I Want To Be but this does not seem to bothe

a good sportsmanship trophy, team. Sewing and knitting are points. Mr. Hill of the Junior Cham- her favorite hobbies. Her marks ber of Commerce presented range from C plus to A, but she Luella MacDonald, Iona Hardy never admits that she is really

Her pet peeve is that she dis-

Gilberte Belanger

Five foot two, eyes of blue. Maybe this is nothing new, But this time it's so true! A true description, that is, of Gilberte Belanger, sixteen year old recent arrival at Bo-Me-Hi. Gilberte first attended school here in September and is going through to grade twelve. After | graduation she intends to be a stenographer. Her major subject is typing.

Gilberte has travelled a lot "the roving kind"? Prior to her arrival here she lived in Rouyn, Quebec, and before that in North Bay. She has also been in Montreal.

Her favorite sports are skiing. skating and, for summer recrea-

One of Gilbete's favorite pas times is collection of Royal Fam-"Come out, sweet June, and let ily photographs.

Since that song "The Thing' came out a couple of months ago, there have been many All right, all right, we'll end guesses made as to just what "The Thing" is. We think we've "Come in," she whispered low. finally hit on the truth, though. What else could it be but a report card? "You'll never get rid of that blankety-blank-blank.

no matter what you do!"

charming personality and ready June who was born in Winni peg, came to Prince Rupert in 1943. She is going through for

She's running for Queen

Henry of course. She's the

We are talking about June

She uses beauty soap.

She's lovely,

University Entrance. When asked how she feels

She has blonde hair and a mil- ernor of South Australia.

green eyes and is always in a a few weeks ago from Cumber- physician, who was minister in general boosts. good humor—that is nearly al- land, Maryland, bringing with Florence at the time. In return 3. Re-examination and extenways. Eileen is a Rupert prod- her many cute customs and the doctor gave the original cast sion of hours of work where it is] uct. She is taking a commer- characteristics of that state, in- to Lord Burghersh. cial course and gets good marks cluding a delicious southern Sir Archibald, giving up En- could be achieved without detriin all her subjects. Her hobby is drawl. Patty states that she likes glemere because of the high cost ment to the worker. playing the piano. In sports she Prince Rupert and Bo-Me-Hi of its operation, expects to dis- 4. Prohibition by law of strikes thinks swimming is fun, but her very much and plans on staying. pose of the mask as a museum and lockouts. After graduation she intends to exhibit. Made from some deli- 5. Drastic action to restore sketch but it is hard to describe orite pastimes. "At home," back has never been disclosed. in Maryland, Patty was secretary of the choral club, and also Bo-Me-Hi is proud to have her

Hi Sports

Last week our high flying Rainmakers smothered the Wrangell Wolves in a two game total point exhibition series. Monday night's score was 46 to 37 for Bo-Me-Hi. McChesney was high scorer for the game with 19 points. On Tuesday, McChesney ran wild again scoring 18 points to lead the Rainmakers to a decisive 51 to 37 win. Scoring honors for the game went to a Wrangell boy, Maynard, who paced his team with 20

The spirit of the students was indicated by the full support to the cheer leaders and song

FAMOUS BRAIN Albert Einstein was 26 years old when he produced his first paper on the theory of relativity

Now-Cash in on Furs! Some Prices Higher— Get Your Furs in Quick!

Tremendous continued demand makes possible Higher Prices for the urgently wanted Furs . . . The Prices ? "SHUBERT" now offers, we believe are HIGHER than are available anywhere. For prompt shipments will pay AS HIGH AS 80c for No. 1 SQUIR-REL; MUSKRAT and WEAS-EL $4.00; MINK (Wild Dark Interior) $60.00; BEAVER and } OTTER $45.00; MARTEN (Interior Dark Heavy) $85.00; FISHER $100.00. Top prices ? guaranteed for ALL British } Columbia Furs. It will pay you to get all your Furs in { QUICK, while these tremendously HIGH prices are avail-Rble. Don't be content with } any-old-price offered locally -Ship to "SHUBERT" VAN-COUVER (No export permits) } required) and see how MUCH MORE you can get. Hurry! Get a shipment away TODAY

Dept. 194. A. B. SHUBERT CO., Winnipeg. Ship to VANCOUVER.

school auditorium following the Melbourne, chairman of the Britain's national economy was last Wrangell game. It was put Finance Corporation for Induson by the Student Council and try, and former prime minister the ideals of the welfare state. was invitational. Dancing was of Australia, has offered the Brit- A halt had to be called. from 10:30 to 12:30. Refresh- ish government what he termed ments were served. Party was "a sure-fire" plan to overcome enjoyed by all.

New Jeachers MR. ROBERTSON

Mr. Robertson first saw the 1912 in the city of Toronto.

Mr. Robertson has travelled from one end of Canada to the other and no doubt he could tell anything one could wish to know about this fair country. Mr. Robertson worked as asa Toronto shipbpuilding firm for several years and later he a curb on wage increases. were manufactured.

with blonde hair, blue eyes,

Mr. Robertson is married and country. is the proud father of four chadren. He hopes the world situation improves but he like to remain in Prince Rupert

Napoleonic Curio To Museum

LONDON ()-An original cast Here is the opportunity to of Emperor Napoleon's death learn more about Patty Martin, mask is to be sold with a colpretty newcomer to the school. lection of antiques from Engle-Patty is sixteen years old, fiv. mere, the Ascot home of Sir foot six inches and quite slender. Archibald Weigall, former gov-games will be enjoyed from 8 enteen year old Eileen. She's a lion dollar personality. The mask was taken by Dr. the two years, unless greater She arrived in Prince Rupert Antommarchi, the Emperor's economic production justifies cate composition, the mask has discipline in the trade unions Patty's favorite sports are been kept on a padded base, and control to their responsible swimming and basketball. Knit- under glass, since it came into leaders. This is a short personality ting ranks high among her fav- the family's possession. Its value > guard on the basketball team. Scouts Save Dog Frozen On Ice

MIDLAND, Ont.-Marooned on Midland harbor, with one paw frozen to the ice, a stray dog was recently rescued by three Boy Scouts.

Using boards to support him, the lightest Scout inched his way out to the dog, freed it and brought it to shore. There the trio thawed it out, fed it and took it to a police station to await a claimant.

> Have a Good Meal!

NEW CITY CAFE

FULL COURSE MEALS

Phone Blue 92 FOR TAKE OUT ORDERS

Know a good Buy? THIS IS VALUE Inspect This!

Smart 2-Tone

Several Other Good Values

FORD - MONARCH DEALERS Prince Rupert, B.C.

"Sure Fire" Plan To Prop Economy

A dance party was held in the LONDON (P - Lord Bruce of the nation's economic crisis.

He told members of the Na- when confronted with bison, tional Union of Manufacturers kangaroos, llamas and wallabies that the Socialists could have his wandering in a vacant lot in the remedy for the asking. But ur- heart of the city. They are zoo gent action would be necessary to animals put out to grass in the meet a situation he believed was summer, but curator C. J. Cutler light of day one hot July day in the most serious in peacetime so far has had no reports of pink elephants.

The answer, Lord Bruce said. was to frame a two-year emergency program involving among other measures drastic reduction in public expenditure, abandonment of further nationalization, larger viewing the evidence. In hor morning he thought something has very good sense, this is an morning he thought something sistant yard superintendent for worked as a foreman in a fac- Once drawn up, the program tory where Mosquito bombers should be submitted for endorsement at a general election to be During the last war Mr. Rob- called without delay. Coupled ertson served with the Royal with this proposal, Lord Bruce Canadian Air Force. Prior to suggested an undertaking should coming to Prince Rupert he was be given by the political parties general construction foreman at that at the close of the twothe newly built Nanaimo pulp year emergency period there would be another appeal to the

One of the major planks in the proposed program calls for reorganization, re-equipment and subject to call but he would so modernization of industries already nationalized. Priority would be given to coal and transportation. At the same time, plans to bring iron and steel; under state control, would be

IMPORTANT PROVISIONS

Following are some of the other suggested provisions: 1. Taxation reductions to relieve the burden on industry and provide an incentive to the indi-

2. No increase in wages during established that increased output

6. Reduction in expenditures on |} the social services and continuance of the understanding for |

JOHN H. Optometrist

> John Bulger Ltd. Third Avenue

Prince Rupert Daily News Friday, February 9, 1951

WELLINGTON, N.Z. (P)-Early

limitation of profit distributions. Lord Bruce said the program might appear startling. But a point had been reached where Satisfactory unable to sustain expansion of "A very happy set of meetings," described the "I Believe" meetmorning revellers get a shock ings held by the Salvation Army Wednesday night's meeting was led all the way through by Angus Thompson. Subject for the meeting was "The Holy Spirit." A

was the way Capt. W. C. Poulton good attendance was reported. Last night, the meeting was in charge of Major Janet Chambers, LONDON (P) A 16-year-old matron of the lodge for young boy who embezzled $105 to buy women. The subject was "Salbooks was ordered to repay the vation by the Blood."

money. But the judge commented Capt. Poulton was well pleased comprehensive lib- had been accomplished through

FOR ALL THE FAMILY Buy SHOES Now! Only

SHOE SALE

Saturday is the Last Day Brownwoods

The Pioneer Druggist

DAILY DELIVERY Phone 81

DAILY NEWS CLASSIFIED ADS

Write Them Yourself on this Handy Form

Enclosed Please Find. (3c per word per insertion-e.g. Number of words 25; cost, 75c. Six insertions for price of four. Minimum charge, 50c.)

99" EVERYBODY ELSE DOES