Blackwood on Bridge

By Easley Blackwood

Count on Mr. Champion to put his partner on the spot. On the hand preceding this one he had bawled out Mr. Abel for not finding the right line of play. Mr. Abel could not defend his play and this fact left him unhappy and distraught.

Nevertheless, Mr. Champion pushed the bidding past game on this hand—and Mr. Abel was justified in going on to slam. Champion-Abel vulnerable.

Champion-Abel vulnerable.

The bidding:
North South West
1 D Pass 1 H Pass
1 S Pass 3 H Pass
5 H Pass 6 H All Pass

Mr. Masters led the queen of clubs. Mr. Abel saw six tricks in hearts, two in spades, one in diamonds and two in clubs—eleven in all. The twelfth trick would have to come from a spade finesse or from trumping a club in dummy. Mr. Abel chose the latter course.

He took the opening lead with dummy's king of clubs, came to his hand with the ace of clubs and led a third club, trumping with dummy's nine of hearts. Mrs. Keen overtrumped with the jack and promptly led back a trump.

Mr. Abel won with dummy's ace, entered his hand with the ace of spades and pulled the remaining trumps. He still had a losing club in his hand. It had to go somewhere. Desperately he tried the finesse of the jack of spades and it lost to Mrs. Keen's queen. Down one.

There was a much better play on the hand but Mr. Abel was not in a condition to see it. He should trump the third club with the ace of trumps. He should then return to his hand with the ace of spades, lead his last club and trump it with dummy's nine of hearts. Mrs. Keen would overtrump with the jack but would be her side's last trick.

Of course, Mr. Champion saw the right line of play. And he was quick to point it out. Poor Mr. Abel was so miserable by now that I don't think he ever did understand it. A lot of good Mr. Champion's lecture did. It helped nothing but his own ego.

rived in one or two lump sums may make payment in that way, if still within the year. I think the people of Canada, including Skeena, will accept the regulations, as a necessary contribution to our efforts to meet present conditions.

ART EXHIBITION — I have been asked by the President of the Art Gallery of Toronto to draw to your attention the most important event in the history of art in Canada, the "Vienna (Hapsburg) Collection Exhibition," which will completely fill the Art Gallery of Toronto Buildings next August 5 to September 16. Any one who will be in the east at that time should certainly see this.

"OUR" OTTAWA—A few days ago Prime Minister St. Laurent, following up a work in which the late Rt. Hon. Mackenzie King took such a deep interest, laid on the table of the House, copies in English and in French of the general report of the plan for a national capital, and the letter of transmittal from the chairman of the federal district commission, together with the recommendations made to the federal district commission by the national capital planning committee. Mr. St. Laurent spoke with real feeling of the excellent plans which will make Ottawa an outstanding capital throughout the whole world. George Drew expressed gratification that the plan has finally been completed and presented. I hope my readers will all remember that "Ottawa belongs to YOU." It is today a capital city you can really be proud of. It will when completed be an example to the whole world.

THIS CITIZEN-SAILOR
IS PREPARING TO DEFEND HIS HOME!
HOW ABOUT YOU?

Only the trained man can effectively protect his home!
YOU can use your spare time now — to prepare yourself
to serve Canada at sea should the call come!

You can be ready for advancement — and do a service
to your country — by joining the R.C.N. (Reserve), in your own home town.

THE NAVY RESERVE MEANS BUSINESS...

The times are perilous: preparedness is necessary to freedom! The R.C.N. (Reserve) stands for preparedness.
It is a body of citizen-sailors in training — increasing their knowledge of the skills and crafts of the sea —
ready and able to serve in the Royal Canadian Navy, if needed. Reserve training is important training: it demands whole-hearted interest and effort. Don't delay! Join today! It's a man's life.

CANADA'S NAVY NEEDS MORE RESERVISTS NOW!

You will spend two weeks
each year training on salt water cruises — gaining practical experience at sea

You will be required to spend one night a week
learning the crafts of the sea and many valuable skills

You will enjoy healthy recreation — prepare yourself for added responsibilities in civilian or service life

You will be paid at regular Navy rates for the time you spend in training — earn extra money in your spare time

Reserve Training Is Important Training and Demands Whole-hearted Interest and Effort!
