Seventy-nine Men Trapped Deep Down in British Colliery EASINGTON, England (P) - A violent explosion entombed 79 miners early today deep in an Easington coal pit. Hours later rescuers recovered eight bodies and brought one injured man to the surface. Teams of rescuers toiled in non-stop shifts to move tons of rock and debris shaken loose by a blast 900 feet underground in hopes of rescueing alive 70 mer

Mining officials said that the coal face, where it is believed the majority of the men are trapped, is still another 700 yards

Fresh air is being forced down through neighboring seams in the hopes that it would filter through to the men. A violent blast blew two men clear of tumbling debris. One said he was lifted and tossed 60 yards down a tunnel. Another said he was thrown 20 to 30 "A great cloud of black gas'
