

Mrs. Forbes Makes Butter

She calls it Economy Butter, and it is well named, considering the quantity she gets, and the low cost of the extra butter. To half a pound of butter add one SMALL tin of Pacific Milk, in which has been dissolved a small pinch of baking soda.

Whip 'till the butter has all been taken up and allow to set gradually in a cool place.

It makes almost a pound of butter—good butter, too.

Many will thank Mrs. Forbes for her kindness, as we do.

Sport Briefs

A particular feature of the football game the other evening between the Trail and the G.T.P. was the excellent goal-keeping of Waldarf. More than once did he execute some excellent saves. In the defense for the railwaymen there were many weak spots but these were covered up by the good work of the man between the stakes. After John Currie came back the danger of breaking through was less, for the young fellow was kicking an excellent foot.

It would be better for the football league if all the referees checked up the players for their conduct on the field as well as did J. Day Bell on Friday evening. He had no patience with the players who were playing a foul game and were too free with their language on the public place. It was not necessary to check them more than once and it is always so easy to stop such tactics in their early stages. Clean football always provides a better entertainment for the spectators who repudiate any mean plays.

Many angling parties were out over the week end and among the favored spots were Shawatlans Lake and Woodworth Lake. Both bodies of water can be covered in one trip but it takes hard going to make the whole trip from town in one day. However, with two or three days free as was the condition this holiday, the trip could be made in comparative ease.

LITERARY LADY LEAVES FOR EAST

Mrs. E. C. Cotes who has been spending a month or two in this city at the Prince Rupert Hotel, left for the east yesterday. While here she completed a movie play and she will go to New York in connection with it. Also she will visit her old home at Brantford, Ontario, before going to England.

Mrs. Cotes is a writer of note, her work being published under the name of Jeannette Duncan. While here she absorbed a good deal of information and doubtless Prince Rupert will figure largely in some of the writings of this gifted lady as a result.

Mr. Cotes left earlier to tour with the Prince as Reuter's special representative.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

Dr. R. E. Page of Stewart arrived back from a brief trip to Terrace by Sunday evening's train.

Mrs. R. J. D. Smith and family arrived back in the city from the south by the Union steamship yesterday morning.

Geo. W. Abbott who has been on a trip to the interior for the past few weeks returned to the city on Sunday evening's train.

The Labor Day committee wish to say that the name of the Rupert Bakeries was inadvertently omitted from the list of prizes donated yesterday. Their's was a donation of $5.

Miss M. McLennan of the high school teaching staff returned to the city by the train on Sunday evening. Miss McLennan spent her summer vacation with her parents in Portage la Prairie.

Miss Johnson and Miss Osbeck of Boston were among the visitors in the city over the week end. The two ladies made an extended trip through the north and are very much delighted with all they have seen. They went as far as Carcross.

Among those leaving for the south on the Grand Trunk boat on Sunday evening were Edgar Solloway and Swansea Peck. Both are students at the University of British Columbia and have gone south again to take up the fall term work. They have been working at one of the canneries up the river during the summer months.

Miss A. Crowe arrived in the city on Saturday afternoon from the north by the Princess Alice. Miss Crowe has just returned from a return trip to Skagway on which she was accompanied by her sister who continued on to Vancouver. Miss Crowe has been on holiday from the nursing staff at Anyox and returned there on the Prince Rupert Saturday.
